Mud, Sweat & Gears Ellie Bennett, 2013-05-01 The tale of a scenic cycling trip including an index of the 50 finest beers tasted on the trip One more wouldn't hurt said Mick I looked at him doubtfully I'm not sure It's gone three o'clock already What time does it get dark in Cornwall at this time of year Not for ages said Mick waving his hand dismissively One more and then we'll get on He headed back to the bar with our empty beer glasses As Ellie's 50th birthday approaches and her ambitions of a steady income a successful career and an ascent of Everest seem as far away as ever she begins to doubt she's capable of achieving anything at all So when her best friend Mick suggests a grueling cycle ride from Land's End to John O'Groats she takes up the challenge They opt for the scenic route which takes them along cycle paths towpaths and the back roads and byways of Britain unable to resist sampling local beers in the pubs they pass along the way But as the pints start to stack up faster than the miles they're putting under their tires Ellie wonders if they'll ever make it to the finishing line

Laboring Mothers Ellen Malenas Ledoux, 2023-11-10 Motherhood inherently involves labor The seemingly perennial notion that paid work outside the home and motherhood are incompatible however grows out of specific cultural conditions established in Britain and her colonies during the long eighteenth century With Laboring Mothers Ellen Malenas Ledoux synthesizes and expands on two feminist dialogues to deliver an innovative transatlantic cultural history of working motherhood Addressing both actual historical women and fabricated representations of a type

Ledoux demonstrates how contingent ideas about the public sphere and maternity functioned together to create systems of power and privilege among working mothers Popular culture has long thrown doubt on the idea that women can be both productive and reproductive at the same time Although the critical task of raising and providing for a family should in theory foster solidarity this has not historically proven the case Laboring Mothers demonstrates how contemporary associations surrounding economic status race and working motherhood have their roots in an antiquated and rigid system of inequality among women that dates back to the Enlightenment
