to our understanding of classic works of Italian art      Painting with Demons Michael Fried, 2020-10-15 The achievements of Italian Renaissance painter Giovanni Gerolamo Savoldo were even during a period of unprecedented artistry out of the ordinary Born in Brescia around 1480 he radically reimagined Christian subjects His surviving oeuvre of roughly fifty paintings from the intensely poetic Tobias and the Angel to sober self portraits represents some of the most profound work of the period In Painting with Demons a beautifully illustrated book and the first in English devoted to the painter Michael Fried brings his celebrated skills of looking and thinking to bear on Savoldo's art providing a stunning contribution to our understanding both of the early modern European imagination and of the achievement of this underappreciated artist

Man, Myth, and Sensual Pleasures Jan Gossaert, Stijn Alsteens, Nadine Orenstein, Lorne Campbell, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), National Gallery (Great Britain), 2010 Issued in connection with an exhibition held Oct 5 2010 Jan 17 2011 Metropolitan Museum of Art New York and Feb 23 May 30 2011 National Gallery London selected paintings only      The Look of Van Dyck John Peacock, 2017-07-05 Based on a close study of Van Dyck's Self portrait with a Sunflower this book examines the picture's context in the symbolic discourses of the period and in the artist's oeuvre The portrait is interpreted as a programmatic statement made in the ambience of the Caroline court after Van Dyck's appointment as Principal Painter of his view of the art of painting This statement formulated in appropriately visual terms characterizes painting as a way of looking and seeing a mode of vision In making such a claim the artist steps aside from the familiar debate about whether painting was a manual or an intellectual discipline and moves beyond any idea of it as simply a means of representing the external world the painter's definitive faculty of vision can reach further than those realities which present themselves to the eye John Peacock analyses the motif of looking the ways in which figures regard or disregard each other throughout Van Dyck's work and the images of the sunflower and the gold chain in this particular portrait to reveal what is essentially an idealist conception of pictorial art He contradicts previous opinions that the artist was pedestrian in his thinking by showing him to be familiar with a range of ideas current in contemporary Europe about painting and the role of the painter      Making Copies in European Art 1400-1600, 2018-11-26 Making Copies in European Art 1400 1600

Brescia Marco Rossi,2001 The Moment of Caravaggio Michael Fried,2023-10-17 A major reevaluation of Caravaggio from one of today s leading art historians This is a groundbreaking examination of one of the most important artists in the Western tradition by one of the leading art historians and critics of the past half century In his first extended consideration of the Italian Baroque painter Michelangelo Merisi da Caravaggio 1573 1610 Michael Fried offers a transformative account of the artist s revolutionary achievement Based on the A W Mellon Lectures in the Fine Arts delivered at the National Gallery of Art The Moment of Caravaggio displays Fried's unique combination of interpretive brilliance, historical seriousness and theoretical sophistication providing sustained and unexpected readings of a wide range of major works from the early Boy Bitten by a Lizard to the late Martyrdom of Saint Ursula. The result is an electrifying new perspective on a crucial episode in the history of European painting. Focusing on the emergence of the full-blown gallery picture in Rome during the last decade of the sixteenth century and the first decades of the seventeenth, Fried draws forth an expansive argument, one that leads to a radically revisionist account of Caravaggio's relation to the self-portrait, of the role of extreme violence in his art as epitomized by scenes of decapitation and of the deep structure of his epoch-defining realism. Fried also gives considerable attention to the art of Caravaggio's great rival Annibale Carracci as well as to the work of Caravaggio's followers including Orazio and Artemisia Gentileschi, Bartolomeo Manfredi and Valentin de Boulogne. Dosso Dosso Peter Humfrey, Dosso Dosso, Mauro Lucco, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), J. Paul Getty Museum, 1998. Dosso's rich color schemes are akin to those of his fellow North Italian Titian; he learned something about innovative composition from Raphael and about the force of the body from Michelangelo. But his paintings have a very individual appeal. In leafy natural surroundings containing an array of animals and heavenly bodies, events unfold that are often enigmatic, enacted by characters whose interrelationships elude definition.

Dosso's Fate Dosso Dosso, 1998. Dosso Dosso has long been considered one of Renaissance Italy's most intriguing artists. Although a wealth of documents chronicles his life, he remains in many ways an enigma, and his art continues to be as elusive as it is compelling. In Dosso's Fate, leading scholars from a wide range of disciplines examine the social, intellectual and historical contexts of his art, focusing on the development of new genres of painting, questions of style and chronology, the influence of courtly culture and the work of his collaborators as well as his visual and literary sources and his painting technique. The result is an important and original contribution not only to literature on Dosso Dosso but also to the study of cultural history in early modern Italy.
