[With Reproductions, Including a Self-portrait.]. Reto ROEDEL,Giovanni Battista Emanuele Maria SEGANTINI,1944      Giovanni Segantini Diana Segantini,Guido Magnaguagno,Ulf Küster,2011

Based on numerous important paintings and drawings this extensive publication presents the life and work of Giovanni Segantini 1858 1899 the enthusiastic Divisionist and Symbolist whose work was inspired by light His desire to translate the bright clear light he experienced in the alpine world led to an enormous painterly development one that is evident in all of his creative phases starting with his time in Brianza Lombardy the pictures of farm life in Savognin and finally to the apex of his career characterized by the brightly lit mountain landscapes of the Engadin Valley Scholarly and literary essays acknowledge the important role Segantini played in reviving landscape painting and paving the way for modernism and assign him a new place in the history of world art as a painter of light Publisher s website      Giovanni Segantini Luigi Villari,2015-06-28

La Vita - La Natura - La Morte Juerg Albrecht,2022-04-21 An insightful new study on the moving genesis of Giovanni Segantini s landmark triptych Giovanni Segantini s 1858 99 three paintings La Vita La Natura La Morte Becoming Being Passing of 1898 99 at first glance reveal nothing about their equally complex and interesting background Segantini originally planned them for the 1900 Paris Exposition Universelle as a multimedia walk through Engadine Panorama 722 feet long and sixty feet high He was forced to reduce the undertaking to three purely pictorial main paintings which eventually remained unfinished due to the artist s premature death In this richly illustrated book Swiss art historian and Segantini expert Juerg Albrecht traces the eventful genesis of this landmark work drawing on previously untapped sources and places it in the context of Alpine painting and the mass medium of the panorama He offers a fresh perspective on one of the last major Symbolist works of the fin de siècle and sheds light also on Segantini s highly personal pantheism      The Panorama Bernard Comment,2002 In this book Bernard Comment examines the wide variety of panoramas featuring both the old and the new worlds Included among views of cities are Robert Baker s View of Edinburgh and depictions of Paris Moscow and Lima      The Laboratory of Progress Joseph Jung,2022-07-29 The Laboratory of Progress Switzerland in the 19th Century tells the improbable story of how a small backward mountainous agricultural country with almost no raw materials became an industrial powerhouse a hub of innovation a touristic mecca and a pioneer in transportation all in the course of a single century That a tiny landlocked country should become a dominant steamship builder for the rest of the world that a country that had never seen a cotton plant should become the world's second largest textile producer that a country with hardly any level terrain should come to boast the world's most highly developed railway network and that a country whose main export was impoverished emigrants should be transformed into one of the world's major financial centres these astonishing developments among many others are explored and explained both through the specific stories of individual innovators and through a prescient analysis of the political economic societal and cultural structures that formed the context in which Switzerland's astonishing transformation took place The book is a compelling read both for professional historians and for general readers with an interest in Switzerland it highlights the roles of transport networks and individual pioneers in industrial and political development
