Giraudoux Par Lui-même. C. Marker Jean Giraudoux, 1962      Chris Marker Catherine Lupton, 2005 A critical study of the work of film maker and media artist Chris Marker      Persistent Voice : Essays on Hellenism in French Literature since the 18th Century, in honor of Professor Henri M. Peyre (the) Walter G. Langlois,      Lesbian Materialism Morgane Cadieu, Annabel L. Kim, 2023-01-01 Yale French Studies 142 explores the contemporary relevance of an alternative strand of feminism as theorized by Monique Wittig This volume of Yale French Studies foregrounds Monique Wittig 1935 2003 a writer who left France to live and teach in the United States in a diverse range of multidisciplinary conversations in literary studies history and gender and sexuality studies to demonstrate how Wittig's theoretical and literary work remains an indispensable resource for thinking and creating in the twenty first century Editors Morgane Cadieu and Annabel L Kim flip the materialist lesbianism that Wittig's collection of essays The Straight Mind centers and describes as being the core of Wittig's work to deal instead with lesbian materialism thereby making lesbian the method and materialism the object and allowing Wittig's work to realize its full range The volume reinterrogates the official historiography of French materialist feminism expands the intellectual framework within which Wittig's work is usually considered insists on the language centric materialism that emerges from Wittig's writing as a way of joining the political with the literary and attends to the way this literary material inspires material responses and creations within the plastic arts Underlying the entire volume is a keen sense of the materiality of Wittig's archives housed at the Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library at Yale University as a site of lesbian thought in Wittig's radical sense of the term a fugitive positionality      Chris Marker Sarah Cooper, 2021-06-15 Since the early 1950s Chris Marker has embraced different filmmaking styles as readily as he has new technologies and has broadened conceptions of the documentary in distinctly personal ways He has travelled around the world tracking political upheavals and historic events as well as unearthing the stories buried under official reporting This globetrotting filmmaker testifies to his six decades on the move through a passionate devotion to the moving image Yet from the outset his filmic images reveal a fascination with stillness It is at this juncture of mobility and immobility that Sarah Cooper situates her comprehensive study of Marker's films She pays attention to the central place that photographs occupy in his work as well as to the emergence in his filming of statuary painting and other static images including the film still and his interest in fixed frame shooting She engages with key debates in photographic and film theory in order to argue that a different conception of time emerges from his filmic explorations of stasis In detailed readings of each of his films including Le souvenir d'un avenir and La Jetée Sans soleil and Level 5 Cooper charts Marker's concern with mortality in varied historical and geographical contexts which embraces the fragility of the human race along with that of the planet      The Drama of Fallen France Kenneth Krauss, 2012-02-01 The Drama of Fallen France examines various dramatic works written and or produced in Paris during the four years of Nazi occupation and explains what they may have meant to their original audiences Because of widespread financial support from the new French government at Vichy the former French capital underwent a renaissance of theatre during this period and both the public playhouses and the private theatres provided an amazing array of new productions and revivals Some of the plays considered here are well known Anouilh's Antigone Sartre's The Flies Claudel's The Satin Slipper Others have remained obscure such as Cocteau's The Typewriter Giraudoux's The Apollo of Marsac and Montherlant's Nobody's Son and two Andr  Obey's Eight Hundred Meters and Simone Jollivet's The Princess of Ursins have remained virtually unread since the early 1940s In examining French culture under the Vichy regime and the Nazis Kenneth Krauss links the politics of gender and sexuality with the more traditional political concepts of collaboration and resistance A final chapter on Truffaut's 1980 film The Last Metro demonstrates how the present manages to rewrite and revision the complex and seemingly contradictory reality of the past

La Jetée Chris Darke, 2019-07-25 Chris Marker's La Jetée is 28 minutes long and almost entirely made up of black and white still images Since its release in 1964 the film which Marker described as a photo novel has haunted generations of viewers and inspired writers artists and film makers Its spiralling narrative of post nuclear war time travel narrative has influenced many other films including the Terminator series and Terry Gilliam's Hollywood remake Twelve Monkeys 1995 But as Marker rarely gave interviews little is really known about the origins of La Jetée or the ideas behind it In this groundbreaking study Chris Darke draws on rare archival material including previously unpublished correspondence and production documents to examine the making of the film He explores how Marker's only fiction film was influenced both by his early work as a writer and by Alfred Hitchcock's Vertigo 1958 and considers how La Jetée's imagery can be seen to echo throughout Marker's extraordinarily diverse oeuvre
