on the international agenda The authors examine the problems and key areas of policy development for education

Education, Poverty and Global Goals for Gender Equality Elaine Unterhalter, Amy North, 2017-08-07 Drawing on case study research that examined initiatives which engaged with global aspirations to advance gender equality in schooling in Kenya and South Africa this book looks at how global frameworks on gender education and poverty are interpreted in local settings and the politics of implementation It discusses the forms of global agreements in particular contexts and allows for an appraisal of how they have been understood by the people who implement them By using an innovative approach to comparative cross country research the book illuminates how ideas and actions connect and disconnect around particular meanings of poverty education and gender in large systems and different settings Its conclusions will allow assessments of the approach to the post 2015 agenda to be made taking account of how policy and practice relating to global social justice are negotiated sometimes negated the forms in which they are affirmed and the actions that might help enhance them This book will be valuable for students researchers academics senior teachers senior government and inter government officials and senior staff in NGOs working in the field of education and international development gender poverty reduction and social development

Education, Equity and Transformation Crain Soudien, Peter Kallaway, 1999-12-31 The papers for this special issue were selected from a pool of nearly 700 presentations which were made at the 10th Congress of the World Council of Comparative Education Societies WCCES which was held in Cape Town South Africa from 12 to 17 July 1998 The congress was hosted by the Southern African Comparative and History of Education Society SACHES and held on the campuses of the University of the Western Cape and the University of Cape Town The papers were selected by the convenors of the conference s standing commissions which provided a significant focus for the conference proceedings These commissions were on the following themes Teachers and teacher education Curriculum Higher education Lifelong learning Language literacy and basic education Gender and education Policy Theory and theory shifts Basic education in Africa Peace and Justice Dependency European Education Policy Research in Africa Culture Indigenous Knowledge and Learning The papers presented as the discussion below makes clear ranged widely in subject matter and theoretical perspective and addressed issues of concern both to individual countries and to regions of the world While some of the papers use comparison as an approach it remains a matter of concern that the comparative perspective is so little in evidence It is hoped that the comparative research approach will be more in evidence in the future

Women and Girls Rising Ellen Chesler, Terry McGovern, 2015-06-19 A growing body of evidence demonstrates that improvements in the status of women and girls however worthy and important in their own right also drive the prosperity stability and security of families communities and nations Yet despite many indicators of progress women and girls everywhere including countries of the developed world continue to confront barriers to their full and equal participation in social economic and political life Capturing voices and experiences from around the world this work documents the modern history of the global women s movement its many accomplishments and setbacks Drawing together prominent pioneers and contemporary policymakers activists and scholars the volume interrogates where and why progress has met resistance and been slowed and examine the still unfinished agenda for change in national and international policy arenas This history and roadmap are especially critical for younger generations who need a better understanding of this rich feminist legacy and the intense opposition that women s movements have generated This book creates a clear and forceful narrative about women s agency and the central relevance of women s rights movements to global and national policy making It is essential reading for activists and policymakers students and scholars alike

Education, Reform and the State John Furlong, Robert Phillips, 2002-11-01 The last quarter of the twentieth century was a very important period in history of education Beginning with the so called Great Debate the period witnessed intense public and political interest in educational issues culminating in an almost unprecedented amount of education related legislation the most symbolic of which was the Education Reform Act of 1988 Some scholars have rightly claimed that the education system was transformed during this period pointing to major changes in the ways in which schools further education colleges and universities were organised managed and controlled Others have claimed that these changes altered the power relationships which had underpinned the education system since 1944 Given the sheer scale and pace of the education policy related reforms of this period this edited collection brings together some of the leading scholars in education to reflect on the major legislative and structural changes in education over the past few decades Published in the year of the twenty fifth anniversary of Callaghan s Ruskin College speech in 1976 it provides a definitive contemporary history of education policy in the late twentieth century The editors bring together some of the leading educationalists to reflect on the major legislative and structural changes in the field over the last twenty five years The book will be of use to education students on undergraduate and postgraduate courses as well as students and academics working in social policy

Amartya Sen's Capability Approach and Social Justice in Education Melanie Walker, Elaine Unterhalter, 2007-07-09 This compelling book introduces Nobel laureate Amartya Sen s capability approach and explores its significance for theory policy and practice in education The book looks particularly at questions concerning the education of children gender equality and higher education Contributors hail from the UK USA Australia Italy and Mexico

Adopting the Song of Phrase: An Psychological Symphony within Girl Friendly Schooling

In some sort of taken by screens and the ceaseless chatter of instant communication, the melodic splendor and mental symphony developed by the written term often fade into the backdrop, eclipsed by the constant sound and interruptions that permeate our lives. However, set within the pages of Girl Friendly Schooling a charming literary treasure brimming with natural thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by an elegant composer of language, that interesting masterpiece conducts readers on a psychological trip, well unraveling the concealed tunes and profound affect resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of this moving analysis, we will discover the book is main harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing fashion, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
