

An offshore oil rig is shown in the center of the frame, situated on a dark, choppy sea. A massive, dark, skull-shaped plume of smoke or steam rises from behind the rig, dominating the upper half of the image. The rig itself is a complex of metal structures, including a derrick and various platforms. The overall atmosphere is dark and ominous.

American Harvest Gaurav Garg,2025-09-23 In the insular community of Harmony Creek the harvest is everything And it must be paid for in blood Jaded journalist Ben Carter thought he had escaped the suffocating grip of his Appalachian town for good But a routine assignment covering a mayoral election pulls him back into the world of family secrets and resentments

he fled a decade ago forcing a reunion with his stoic and estranged father Ben expects to find simple small town corruption but when a mayoral candidate is found displayed like a scarecrow he realizes the real power in Harmony Creek doesn't run from the courthouse it bleeds from the soil The murders are ritualistic each detail mirroring a chillingly specific folk song his mother used to sing As he follows this macabre thread Ben uncovers the town's most deeply buried truth a secret society has been ensuring the town's prosperity for generations through periodic human sacrifice They call it the harvest and they sacrifice Hollow Men those without strong community ties to pay for their survival Now with the town facing economic ruin and the Founder's Day festival approaching another harvest is due And Ben studying the cult's ancient rules is hit with a horrifying realization the perfect candidate for the next sacrifice is his own father Caught in a ticking clock thriller Ben must unravel a political conspiracy that is really a religious one To save his father he must confront not only a murderous small town cult but the ghosts of his own past and the terrible cost of prosperity that may have paid for his own life The only thing more dangerous than the town's lies is the truth he's about to expose A Case of Duplicity in Dorset Clara

Benson, 2017-11-19 When the Duke of Purbeck throws a house party to celebrate his daughter's twenty first birthday and present her with a family heirloom nobody expects that the weekend will end in murder The fabled Belsingham pearls have a history steeped in blood and slaughter dating back more than a century and now it seems they've claimed another life when the interfering and opinionated Professor Coddington is found dead in the library with the pearls clutched in his hand It looks like a robbery gone wrong but then why didn't the thief take the necklace And how did he escape unnoticed given that half the guests were seemingly wandering around the house at the time of the murder House guest Freddy Pilkington Soames has enough on his plate already with a lecherous nuisance of a grandfather to keep an eye on a girlfriend his mother disapproves of and an ex girlfriend who's engaged to another man but shows signs of changing her mind But with a killer on the loose in the house it's time to forget his own troubles and rise to the occasion or risk a scandal that could destroy the reputation of his whole family Beneath the Rust Steven Buchanan, 2025-09-06 Beneath the Rust by Steven Buchanan is a haunting exploration of the Midwest's abandoned roads shuttered factories and forgotten towns places where the machinery has stopped but the echoes of labor never fade Beneath cracked blacktop and rusted steel stories linger freight trains that roll without engines factory floors that breathe in the dark and miners voices rising through the asphalt long after collapse From the Factory That Breathes to the Iron Road and Main Street Midnight each chapter captures the eerie folklore of industrial America blending supernatural suspense with gritty gothic atmosphere Readers will encounter phantom shifts still punching the clock ghostly lantern men patrolling switchyards and bridges that toll with rivets and bone Perfect for fans of rural horror American gothic fiction and haunted folklore Beneath the Rust reveals how memory clings to machinery and how roads themselves carry the stories of those who worked lived and never truly left Atmospheric unsettling and deeply rooted in the industrial heartland this book is both a ghost story collection and a map of where the past refuses silence Step off the
