Ghosting A Double Life:

Ghosting Jennie Erdal, 2010-06-04 Jennie Erdal worked for nearly fifteen years for the flamboyant extravagant larger than life Tiger a London publisher entrepreneur and media personality Officially she was his personal editor In truth Erdal was his ghostwriter and alter ego Under his name she produced not only newspaper columns business columns and novels but even love letters In temperament the two couldn t have been more different Yet their relationship weathered storms of all kinds from temper tantrums to serious financial reversals with a tenacious bond that is both a wonder and an enigma With effortless grace gentle erudition and wry humour Erdal shows us vivid snapshots of an austere childhood in Scotland and of the London publishing world peopled by the elegant and the Oxbridge educated She introduces us to a thoughtful girl who found her passion in language and the magic of words a passion that led her by a series of chance events to the publishing house and the strange wonderful and never dull world of the inimitable Tiger As original as it is elegant and witty Ghosting is a remarkable memoir more than just one woman's story it is the tale of her double life as well as a fascinating glimpse into the symbiotic relationship between two very unusual people Double Life Daniel Tobin, 2004 Daniel Tobin s stunning new collection Double Life takes its name from a vision of humanity at once passionately earthbound and spurred by the metaphysical These poems range from haunting meditations on the paintings of Hieronymous Bosch to an astonishing polyphonic sequence based on the life of Father Bartolomeo de Las Casas who died in 1566 and wrote the first bill of rights in the New World Between these two longer orchestrations appear works both musically diverse and startling in their formal virtuosity as attuned to Plato the Bible Dante Shakespeare Keats and the natural world as to TV talks shows the news physics movies and fast food restaurants From the persona of an Irish Catholic Brooklyn youth on a school trip to Spain to that of a grown man of the suburbs hollowed by doubt it s only the observance of words I keep now to stay the soul Tobin shows us the search for a way to encompass the world turning Christian motifs toward new meanings Why Don't You Write Something I Might Read ?: Reading Writing & Arrhythmia Suresh Menon, 2024-01-03 About the Book LITERARY WRITERS OCCASIONALLY WRITE ON THEIR PASSION FOR SPORT THE TRAFFIC IS SELDOM IN THE OTHER DIRECTION THIS BOOK IS A SMALL ATTEMPT TO REDRESS THAT A SPORTSWRITER WRITING ON A PASSION FOR LITERATURE What do Ved Mehta Gabriel Garc a M rquez and Agatha Christie have in common apart from being among the most celebrated writers in the world that is Their ability to hook the discerning reader and never let go What have some of these great writers said of their own work What for that matter makes a writer or a book great and canonical while others that sold millions of copies in their own lifetimes fade into oblivion How much of a reader's appreciation of a novel or an essay stems from their own early reading practices and friendships And why oh why do they not give the Nobel to the writers who most deserve it These are some of the thoughts that centre this eclectic collection of reflections about writers and writing They seek out the pleasures and the techniques the spaces and the memories the little moments and the life changing sentences that encompass and enrich a reader s life The Interloper Michel Anteby, 2024-04-09 A practical and theoretical guide for field researchers struggling with access Resistance is the bane of all field researchers who are often viewed as interlopers when they enter a community and start asking questions People obstruct investigations and hide evidence They shelve complaints silence dissent and even forget their own past and deny having done so How can we learn about a community when its members resist so strongly The answer is that the resistance itself is sometimes the key Michel Anteby explains how community members often disclose more than intended when they close ranks and create obstacles He draws insights from diverse stories of resistance by uncooperative participants from Nazi rocket scientists and Harvard professors to Disney union busters and people who secure cadavers for medical school dissection to reveal how field resistance manifests itself and how researchers can learn from it He argues that many forms of resistance are retrospectively telling and that these forms are the routine products not by products of the field That means that resistance mechanisms are not only indicative of something else happening instead they often are the very data points that can shed light on how participants make sense of their worlds An essential guide for ethnographers sociologists and all field researchers seeking access The Interloper shares practical and theoretical insights into the value of having the door slammed in your face The Double Life of Benson Yu Kevin Chong, 2024-02-13 In a Chinatown housing project lives twelve year old Benny his ailing grandmother and his strange neighbor Constantine a man who believes he s a reincarnated medieval samurai When his grandmother is hospitalized Benny manages to survive on his own until a social worker comes snooping With no other family he is reluctantly taken in by Constantine and soon an unlikely bond forms between the two At least that s what Yu the narrator of the story wants to write The creator of a bestselling comic book Yu is struggling with continuing the poignant tale of Benny and Constantine and can t help but interject from the present day slowly revealing a darker backstory Can Yu confront the demons he s spent his adult life avoiding or risk his own life and Benny s Burdens of Proof Susanna Egan, 2011-04-20 Autobiographical impostures once they come to light appear to us as outrageous scandalous They confuse lived and textual identity the person in the world and the character in the text and call into question what we believe what we doubt and how we receive information In the process they tell us a lot about cultural norms and anxieties Burdens of Proof Faith Doubt and Identity in Autobiography examines a broad range of impostures in the United States Canada and Europe and asks about each one Why this particular imposture Why here and now Susanna Egan's historical survey of texts from early Christendom to the nineteenth century provides an understanding of the author in relation to the text and shows how plagiarism and other false claims have not always been regarded as the frauds we consider them today She then explores the role of the media in the creation of much contemporary imposture examining in particular the cases of Jumana Hanna Norma Khouri and James Frey The book also addresses ethnic imposture deliberate fictions plagiarism and ghostwriting all of which raise moral legal historical and cultural issues Egan concludes the volume with an examination of how historiography and law failed to support the identities of European Jews during World War II creating sufficient instability in Jewish identity and doubt about Jewish wartime experience that the impostor could step in This textual erasure of the Jews of Europe and the refashioning of their experiences in fraudulent texts are examples of imposture as an outcrop of extreme identity crisis The first to examine these issues in North America and Europe Burdens of Proof will be of interest to scholars of life writing and cultural studies

Caribbean Ghostwriting Erica L. Johnson,2009 Caribbean Ghostwriting addresses a question central to the fields of postcolonial feminist and African diasporic studies how are we to know the colonial past when the lives of colonized and enslaved people were largely written out of history Caribbean authors Michelle Cliff Maryse Conde and Dionne Brand address the silences and gaps of historiography by fleshing out overlooked historical figures in literary form These authors do not simply reconstruct lost lives but rather they foreground the tension between the real material traces of people's lives and the fact of their erasure In novels that are at once historical biographical and artistic they portray real but sparsely documented and therefore haunting histories through a strategy identifiable as ghostwriting Erica L Johnson defines ghostwriting as an important genre of Caribbean literature through which authors literally ghostwrite stories for lost historical figures even while they poetically preserve the unspeakable nature of the archival lacunae their novels engage Erica L Johnson teaches world literature at Wagner College
