Ghosts Of Berlin Confronting German History In The Urban Landscape:

The Ghosts of Berlin Brian Ladd, 2008-04-15 In this compelling work Brian Ladd examines the ongoing conflicts radiating from the remarkable fusion of architecture history and national identity in Berlin Ladd surveys the urban landscape excavating its ruins contemplating its buildings and memorials and carefully deconstructing the public debates and political controversies emerging from its past Written in a clear and elegant style The Ghosts of Berlin is not just another colorless architectural history of the German capital Mr Ladd's book is a superb guide to this process of urban self definition both past and present Katharina Thote Wall Street Journal If a book can have the power to change a public debate then The Ghosts of Berlin is such a book Among the many new books about Berlin that I have read Brian Ladd's is certainly the most impressive Ladd's approach also owes its success to the fact that he is a good storyteller His history of Berlin's architectural successes and failures reads entertainingly like a detective novel Peter Schneider New Republic Ladd's well written and well illustrated book amounts to a brief history of the city as well as a guide to its landscape Anthony Grafton New York Review of Books

Berlin Contemporary Julia Walker, 2021-11-18 For years following reunification Berlin was the largest construction site in Europe with striking new architecture proliferating throughout the city in the 1990s and early 2000s Among the most visible and the most contested of the new projects were those designed for the national government and its related functions Berlin Contemporary explores these buildings and plans tracing their antecedents while also situating their iconic forms and influential designers within the spectacular world of global contemporary architecture Close studies of these sites including the Reichstag the Chancellery and the reconstruction of the Berlin Stadtschloss now known as the Humboldt Forum demonstrate the complexity of Berlin's political and architectural rebuilding and reveal the intricate historical negotiations that architecture was summoned to perform

Curating Transcultural Spaces Sarah Hegenbart, 2024-01-11 Curating Transcultural Spaces asks what a museum which enables the presentation of multiple perspectives might look like Can identity be global and local at the same time How may one curate dual identity More broadly what is the link between the arts and processes of identity construction This volume an indispensable source for the process of engaging with colonial history in Germany and beyond takes its starting point from the scandal of the Humboldt Forum The transfer of German state collections from the Ethnological Museum and the Museum for Asian Art located at the margins of Berlin in Dahlem into the centre of Germany s capital indicates the nation s aspiration of purported multiculturalism and cosmopolitanism yet the project s resurrection of the site s former Prussian city palace which was demolished during the GDR stands in opposition to its very mission given that the Prussian rulers benefited from colonial exploitation By examining the contrasting successes of other projects such as the National Museum of African American History and Culture in Washington DC Curating Transcultural Spaces compellingly argues for the necessity of taking post colonial thinking on board in the construction of museum spaces in order to generate genuine exchange between multiple perspectives

The Decorated Tenement Zachary J. Violette, 2019-04-30 Winner of the International Society of Place Landscape and Culture Fred B Kniffen Award A reexamination of working class architecture in late nineteenth century urban America As the multifamily building type that often symbolized urban squalor tenements are familiar but poorly understood frequently recognized only in terms of the housing reform movement embraced by the American born elite in the late nineteenth century This book reexamines urban America s tenement buildings of this period centering on the immigrant neighborhoods of New York and Boston Zachary J Violette focuses on what he calls the decorated tenement a wave of new buildings constructed by immigrant builders and architects who remade the slum landscapes of the Lower East Side of Manhattan and the North and West Ends of Boston in the late nineteenth century These buildings highly ornamental facades became the target of predominantly upper class and Anglo Saxon housing reformers who viewed the facades as garish wrappings that often hid what they assumed were exploitative and brutal living conditions

Drawing on research and fieldwork of more than three thousand extant tenement buildings Violette uses ornament as an entry point to reconsider the role of tenement architects and builders many of whom had deep roots in immigrant communities in improving housing for the working poor Utilizing specially commissioned contemporary photography and many never before published historical images The Decorated Tenement complicates monolithic notions of architectural taste and housing standards while broadening our understanding of the diversity of cultural and economic positions of those responsible for shaping American architecture and urban landscapes Winner of the International Society of Place Landscape and Culture Fred B Kniffen Award Space, the City and Social Theory Fran Tonkiss, 2005 Taking a thematic approach this book covers the main aspects of modern urban life taught on undergraduate courses The key approaches to the city within contemporary social theory are assessed Tonkiss adopts an international perspective with examples drawn from places such as New York Paris and Sydney A New History of German Literature David E. Wellbery, Judith Ryan, Hans Ulrich Gumbrecht, 2004 A New History of German Literature offers some 200 essays on events in German literary history
