Gifts From The Unknown Using Extraordinary Experiences To Cope With Loss Change:

Gifts from the Unknown Lou LaGrand, 2001-04-24 Louis LaGrand who has had many years of experiences as a grief counselor is a master at discerning the many ways in which after death communications come to the bereaved as well as people dealing with abuse disaster and trauma In Western society we are taught to ignore such experiences to laugh them off and to deride those who take them seriously But as LaGrand shows so well they can serve as a very special aid in confronting the loss of a loved one in a unique and life affirming way that in itself is growth producing If I were to suffer a great loss the first person I would turn to is LaGrand from what I know of him from his three wonderful books But he is only one person among millions of people in need So he has done the next best thing he has made his wisdom and experience available in this book Because in compiling it he has drawn on all of his varied in depth experiences and has organized and presented them only after long reflection reading it may be even better than talking with him in person Readers even if they have not suffered a major loss are likely to be grateful for the book because of the way it opens us to life as well as death Don t be the one to pass it by Rhea A White Founder Director Exceptional Human Experience Network Meaningful Journeys Alec Grant, Elizabeth Lloyd-Parkes, 2024-04-12 Meaningful Journeys is an edited collection of autoethnographies underpinned by the conceptual philosophical and etymological origins of journeying questing and traditional and modern understandings of pilgrimage The volume contains chapters on the ways in which all these concepts intersect with identity and identity transformation These range across narratives of sport adventure preferred identity curative religion revered location nostalgia grief resolution out of suitcase travels and pilgrimage journeys understood in more traditional senses The collection showcases and promotes the identity transformational quest as an important conceptual nuance of narrative autoethnography Readers will engage with the ways in which contributing authors craft their emerging selves into preferred identities which showcase personal and relational change in action This book is essential reading for students and practitioners of autoethnography and qualitative research internationally and others interested in identity transformation in Living with Loss Katrin Den Elzen, Robert Neimeyer, Reinekke Lengelle, 2024-10-28 Living with loss narrative inquiry From grief to wellbeing offers the latest research on adapting to and making sense of bereavement and non death losses It evaluates the effectiveness of a range of therapeutic approaches including various therapeutic writing methods that facilitate the integration of loss Living with loss whether through death or other causes is one of the most challenging experiences we face The COVID 19 pandemic had intensified the impact of these losses and increased the need for professional support and constructive therapeutic approaches This book offers perspectives on resilience the need for presence in bereavement and the assessment of functional impairment following COVID 19 losses It examines the realities of bereaved students in higher education presents and explains compassion focused grief therapy and meaning focused narrative construction and evaluates the therapeutic process of grief recovery This volume also includes a participatory research study into the effectiveness of Traumatology of grieving Charles R. Figley, 2013-10-28 First published in 1999 Those grieving the loss of a loved one who has died under traumatic circumstances form a special group of mourners Separate from those going through simple bereavement these mourners must cope with a double edged sword the grief of the loss and the trauma of the knowledge of how the loved one may have had to endure traumatic stress during their final minutes of life This ground breaking new addition to the Series in Trauma and Loss will enable mental health professionals to distinguish between those who are going through the normal grieving process in the aftermath of a traumatic event and those who are suffering from post traumatic stress disorder A by product of years of research and experience this book helps buttress the theoretical bridge between than atology and traumatology. This text focuses on the unique features of death related PTSD its assessment and treatment With case examples that draw upon consistent concepts and definitions and equal attention to scholarly and practical concerns the book argues that traumatic elements must be worked through first before grief and loss accommodations are achieved More importantly the new research and treatment methods presented by the leading experts in the field provide professionals and laymen alike with a valuable guide for understanding and helping those who grieve a loss under traumatic circumstances Divided into two parts Part 1 Conceptual and Empirical Foundations attempts to lay the empirical and theoretical foundation for the treatment chapters that follow Part 2 Applications provides direction for helping clients grieve their traumatic losses Emotional Rulership: How Emotions, Principles, Laws, and Emotional Intelligence Affect You as a LEADER DR EMMANUEL ENI AMADI, 2022-03-06 The Power and Influence of Emotions in Leadership NOTHING CHANGES in your lifetime unless your MINDSET changes But your mindset cannot CHANGE without your emotions first leading the change Emotions come in various shapes and sizes to test you but many have failed the emotional tests in the classroom of their minds leading to societal disintegration anxiety and depression high blood pressure and kidney damage relationship breakdown marriage vs divorce crime and wars terrorism and as victims of moral decay in leadership and value MANY HAVE fallen as victims of their personal emotions conceived in the privacy of their bedrooms resulting in the public display of dysfunctional leadership around the world Some are found at home as Parents while some as Managers and CEOs of institutions Some are religious leaders serving as Priests Imams Pastors and Bishops hiding in the pulpit of their emotional
