Gilkey On Tillich:

Gilkey on Tillich Langdon Gilkey, 2000-01-13      Mormonism in Dialogue with Contemporary Christian Theologies David Lamont Paulsen, Donald W. Musser, 2007 This volume brings together for the first time a broad range of scholars from Mormon and other Christian traditions Replacing polemics and apologetics with dialogue these exchanges show how the full spectrum of contemporary theologies can be informed by uniquely Mormon ideas and correlatively how Mormon thought can be illuminated through the study of key ideas of the foremost theologians of the twentieth and twenty first centuries      Capitalism as Religion? A Study of Paul Tillich's Interpretation of Modernity Francis Ching-Wah Yip, 2010-09-30 The relationship between religion and modern culture remains a controversial issue within Christian theology Using the concept of cultural modernity Francis Ching Wah Yip reconstructs Paul Tillich's interpretation of modernity and shows that Tillich's notion of theonomy served to underscore the problems of modernity and to develop a response      Tillich Donald W. Musser, Joseph Price, 2010-02-01 Abingdon Pillars of Theology is a series for the college and seminary classroom designed to help students grasp the basic and necessary facts influence and significance of major theologians Written by major scholars these books will outline the context methodology organizing principles primary contributions and major writings of people who have shaped theology as we know it today Tillich served as a theological pioneer exploring boundaries and traversing creatively between the territories of philosophy and theology between the faith and culture between Christianity and Buddhism between the academy and the public He was a thinker who theorized about everything and who attempted to show what matters and why from the book      The Making of American Liberal Theology Gary J. Dorrien, 2003-01-01 In this first of three volumes Dorrien identifies the indigenous roots of American liberal theology and demonstrates a wider longer running tradition than has been thought The tradition took shape in the nineteenth century motivated by a desire to map a modernist third way between orthodoxy and rationalistic deism atheism It is defined by its openness to modern intellectual inquiry its commitment to the authority of individual reason and experience its conception of Christianity as an ethical way of life and its commitment to make Christianity credible and socially relevant to modern people Dorrien takes a narrative approach and provides a biographical reading of important religious thinkers of the time including William E Channing Ralph Waldo Emerson Horace Bushnell Henry Ward Beecher Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Charles Briggs Dorrien notes that although liberal theology moved into elite academic institutions its conceptual foundations were laid in the pulpit rather than the classroom      Life as Spirit Keith Ka-fu Chan, 2018-08-21 Paul Tillich is exceptional in modern theologians that his distinctive and abundant understanding of the concept of life and spirit has the potential to engage with other disciplines such as biology psychology cosmology and social science and that his ontological understanding of life as spirit which is so crucial in the ecological consideration is so complex and subtle that enables powerful and critical inter religious dialogue in environmental ethics This book argues that despite the fact that Tillich did not engage in ecological and environmental theology directly his abundant personal experience of nature mysticism and intellectual understanding of the idea of nature rooted in his Lutheran and German idealist heritages and more importantly his ontological pneumatological holistic and multi dimensional conception of unifying and differentiated reality perfectly and organically coupled with the theonomous vision of theology of culture nature and morality is profoundly ecologically oriented

Reaping the Whirlwind Langdon Gilkey, 2000-01-13

Wrestling with Doubt Frank D. Rees, 2001 Rees provides a theological analysis of doubts as a constructive element within the Christian experience of faith He considers three theological frameworks each of which offers an interpretation of doubt and two life story theologies that deal with faith and doubt

The Theological Project of Modernism Kevin Hector, 2015 Modernism s theological project was an attempt to explain two things firstly how faith might enable persons to experience their lives as hanging together even in the face of disintegrating forces like injustice tragedy and luck and secondly how one could see such faith and so a life held together by it as self expressive Modern theologians such as Kant Schleiermacher Hegel Ritschl and Tillich thus offer accounts of how one s life would have to hang together such that one could identify with it of the oppositions which stand in the way of such hanging together of God as the one by whom oppositions are overcome such that one can have faith that one s life ultimately hangs together and of what such faith would have to be like in order for one to identify with it too So understood modern theology not only sheds light on faith s potential role in enabling persons to identify with their lives but stands in unexpected continuity with contemporary contextual theologies This book offers clear careful readings of modernism s key figures in order to explain their relevance to practical concerns and to contemporary understandings of faith
