The Two-fold Thought of Deleuze and Guattari Charles J. Stivale, 1998-06-05 French philosophers Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari worked together extensively from the 1960s into the 1990s and the resulting intersections of their different sensibilities and modes of knowing fueled powerful alternatives to Marxian and psychoanalytic orthodoxies Yet readers approaching Deleuze and Guattari's works are often frustrated by the paucity or unfamiliarity of specific examples that might clarify their complex arguments This timely volume animates key concepts and terminology by applying them to provocative readings of literary texts films and cultural phenomena from Apocalypse Now to Cajun music and dance Drawing extensively from primary and critical sources to elucidate Deleuze and Guattari's theoretical contributions Stivale reinvigorates their two-fold thought for use as an analytical tool in the humanities and social sciences The book also offers a clear introduction to the precollaborative phase of each thinker's work an interview Stivale conducted with Guattari and the first time English translation of a 1967 essay by Deleuze Winner Board of Governors Faculty Recognition Award Wayne State University

Gilles und Jeanne Georg Kaiser, 1923 The Postmodern Mythology of Michel Tournier Melissa Panek, 2012-03-15 Michel Tournier defines the supreme mission of a writer to be the creation of a mythology which allows for interaction with his readers who seem to be losing their critical faculties in our contemporary postmodern world dominated by consumption and dizzying technological advances Our contemporary society has changed due to the end of the modern era with its reigning ideologies Collapsing after the atrocities of the Second World War Modernity and the artistic and literary reactions referred to as modernism have likewise been transformed Myth continues to represent the collectivity of human existence yet in the short stories and novels of Michel Tournier myth represents the collapse of the all encompassing ideologies inherent to the Modern era The grand narratives of Modernity such as Christianity and Man's reason have been deconstructed in the postmodern era The mythology of Michel Tournier expresses these trends towards the dissolution of Modernity and creates individual mini narratives which emphasize the particularity of individual existence Tournier takes established mythical models rooted in Christianity fables and legends of Western Civilization and re contextualizes them Through a semiotic reworking of core binary pairs of a myth Tournier creates a third order level of representation which modifies the mythical model The works of le Roi des Aulnes Gilles et Jeanne and Vendredi are illustrious of this third order level of signification According to Ferdinand de Saussure Roland Barthes and Claude Lévi Strauss the structural make up of myth transforms established meanings according to the dominant cultural code Barthes semiological study of myth reveals the levels of representation through which myth creates meaning Myth builds upon the denotative first order level of language and through a connotative process creates a second order level This connotative process does not end on this second order for in the writings of Tournier this semiological process is continued to a third order which re contextualizes the myth again Tournier adapts myth to the unique traits of the postmodern era including deconstruction and playfulness by allowing the reader to provide the context of the story As such we the reader take the place as author of our own individual mythology
