Gio Ponti Marco Romanelli, Gio Ponti, Design Museum London, 2002 Gio Ponti: A Metaphysical World Queens Museum of Art, 2001 Giò Ponti Marco Romanelli, Lisa Licitra Ponti, 2002 Rethinking Modernity Antigoni Katsakou, 2020-05-31 This book proposes alternative interpretations of broadly debated concepts within architectural modernity Bringing into view the work of lesser known architects from across the globe alongside previously unexplored aspects of mainstream masters of the Modern Rethinking Modernity puts forward a compelling case for the range and diversity of architectural projects encompassed by this term Exploring themes such as the use of colour materials ornament local traditions and identities Rethinking Modernity challenges readers to build a better understanding of a crucial moment in architectural history and of design trends shaping the present day production of the built environment Complementing the RIBA Publishing titles Redefining Brutalism and Revisiting Postmodernism this book sits within a series of books aiming to explore new interpretations of well loved architectural movements richly illustrated with rarely seen archive photography and lesser known projects Furnishing Fascism Ignacio G. Galán, 2025-05-16 The role of modernist interior design in the construction of Italian nationalism Along with the rise of Mussolini's fascist regime the interwar years in Italy also saw the widespread development of its modernist interior design and furnishing practices While the regime's politics were overtly manifest in monumental government architecture Furnishing Fascism examines the subtler yet effective role of household goods and decor in the cultivation of Italy's exclusionary sense of national identity Presenting a fresh look at the work of various architects and designers including iconic figures such as Gio Ponti and Carlo Enrico Rava Ignacio G Galán explores how seemingly neutral products of everyday life contributed to the propagation of fascist ideology Through extensive promotion in popular magazines and department stores on the film sets of Cinecitt Studios and throughout the country's colonial territories Italy's modernist design practices were part of a larger political project that aimed to produce a totalizing image of cultural hegemony Interweaving design theory architectural history and media scholarship Furnishing Fascism reexamines the period's so called minor arts to reveal the political entanglement of modernism in early twentieth century Italy and offers valuable insight into the complications of cultural production under the auspices of authoritarian power Retail e book files for this title are screen reader friendly with images accompanied by short alt text and/or extended descriptions Construction Matters Stefan Holzer, Silke Langenberg, Clemens Knobling, Orkun Kasap, 2025-03-04 Construction History Construction Heritage Recent Construction Historiography Industrialization Engineering Sciences Building Materials Building Actors Construction History is still a fairly new and small but quickly evolving field The current trends in Construction History are well reflected in the papers of the present conference Construction History has strong roots in the historiography of the 19th century and the evolution of industrialization but the focus of our research field has meanwhile shifted notably to include more recent and also more distant histories as well This is reflected in these conference

proceedings where 65 out of 148 contributed papers deal with the built heritage or building actors of the 20th or 21st century. The conference also mirrors the wide spectrum of documentary and analytical approaches comprised within the discipline of Construction History. Papers dealing with the technical and functional analysis of specific buildings or building types are complemented by other studies focusing on the lives and formation of building actors from laborers to architects and engineers from economical aspects to social and political implications on legal aspects and the strong ties between the history of construction and the history of engineering sciences. The conference integrates perfectly into the daily work at the Institute for Preservation and Construction History at ETH Zurich. Its two chairs, the Chair for Building Archaeology and Construction History and the Chair for Construction Heritage and Preservation, endeavor to cover the entire field and to bridge the gaps between the different approaches, methodologies and disciplines between various centuries as well as technologies learning together and from each other. The proceedings of 8ICCH give a representative picture of the state of the art in the field and will serve as a reference point for future studies.

Gio Ponti Marco Romanelli, 2003 Mid-Century Modern - Visionary Furniture Design from Vienna Caroline Wohlgemuth, 2021-12-31 Visionary furniture design from Vienna. In 1938 Vienna lost its best and most creative minds. This rupture was manifested in all of the arts and sciences and its mark is felt to this day, not least in the field of furniture design. With inexhaustible creativity the Jewish furniture designers who were forced to flee Vienna continued to work while in exile. They taught at the best universities and spread their ideas and vision throughout the entire world. Their creations became classics of twentieth-century furniture design, the epitome of mid-century modern style. This book honors the memory of the exiled designers with a thorough overview of their work. It details their life stories and their visionary designs which remain as relevant and contemporary as ever and brings to light new aspects of the history of Viennese furniture design. A new history of Viennese furniture design with 27 detailed biographies. Numerous previously unpublished photographs and sketches. Including works by Friedl Dicker Brandeis, Martin Eisler, Josef Frank, Friedrich Kiesler, Richard Neutra, Bruno Pollak, Margarete Schütte-Lihotzky, Franz Singer, Ernst Schwadron, among others.

Pride in Modesty Michelangelo Sabatino, 2011-05-21 Following Italy's unification in 1861, architects, artists, politicians, and literati engaged in volatile debates over the pursuit of national and regional identity. Growing industrialization and urbanization across the country contrasted with the rediscovery of traditionally built forms and objects created by the agrarian peasantry. Pride in Modesty argues that these ordinary, often anonymous, everyday things inspired and transformed Italian art and architecture from the 1920s through the 1970s. Through in-depth examinations of texts, drawings, and buildings, Michelangelo Sabatino finds that the folk traditions of the pre-industrial countryside have provided formal, practical, and poetic inspiration directly affecting both design and construction practices over a period of sixty years and a number of different political regimes. This surprising continuity allows Sabatino to reject the division of Italian history into sharply delimited periods such as Fascist, Interwar, and Democratic Postwar, and to instead emphasize the long, continuous process.
