Giorgiones Tempesta With Comments On Gio:

The Art of Renaissance Venice Norbert Huse, Wolfgang Wolters, 1993-10-30 Norbert Huse and Wolfgang Wolters provide the first contemporary single volume survey of the three arts of Venice painting sculpture and architecture They offer an important counterbalance to the traditional orientation toward painting as the city s preeminent art by focusing on architecture as the essential Venetian artistic medium In the process they define the distinctly Venetian terms by which the city and culture should be understood Huse and Wolters begin their study with 1460 when Venice was one of the key powers of Italy and end their discussion with the death of Tintoretto in 1594 a period of waning international power Wolfgang Wolters outlines the city s development and present a typological survey of Venetian architecture A review of sculptors and their works follows Norbert Huse opens the next section on painting by describing the changed situation of painters at the end of the fifteenth century He explores the different forms and functions of Venetian paintings in three distinct periods With over three hundred illustrations and an exhaustive bibliography this volume successfully fills a gap in art historical scholarship From publisher s description Artibus Et Historiae ,1994 The Library Journal Book Review R.
