Good Neighbour:

The Good Neighbour Beth Miller, 2015-09-10 Everyone has secrets How far will you go to protect yours After living next to the neighbours from hell Minette is overjoyed when Cath and her two children move in next door Cath soon becomes her confidante a kindred spirit even her daughter's babysitter But Cath keeps herself unusually guarded and is reluctant to speak of her past And when Minette witnesses something unspeakable she begins to question whether she really knows her new friend at all An addictive and gripping novel perfect for fans of Liane Moriarty and Daughter

The Good Neighbour: Volume 5, The Official History of Australian Peacekeeping, Humanitarian and Post-Cold War Operations Bob Breen, 2016-07-15 The Good Neighbour explores the Australian government's efforts to support peace in the Pacific Islands from 1980 to 2006 It tells the story of the deployment of Australian diplomatic military and policing resources at a time when neighbouring governments were under pressure from political violence and civil unrest The main focus of this volume is Australian peacemaking and peacekeeping in response to the Bougainville Crisis a secessionist rebellion that began in late 1988 with the sabotage of a major mining operation Following a signed peace agreement in 2001 the crisis finally ended in December 2005 under the auspices of the United Nations During this time Australia's involvement shifted from behind the scenes peacemaking to armed peacekeeping intervention and finally to a longer term unarmed regional peacekeeping operation Granted full access to all relevant government files Bob Breen recounts the Australian story from decisions made in Canberra to the planning and conduct of operations

Mitchum, Mexico and the Good Neighbours Era Liam White, 2014-02-12 Robert Mitchum was one of the most charismatic stars of the classic Hollywood era His screen persona was the essence of cool tough but vulnerable accepting of his fate with languid charm and easy humour His films have often been seen through the lens of film noir but they had something else in common too the characters he played in Out of the Past The Big Steal His Kind of Woman Second Chance Where Danger Lives and Angel Face seemed irrevocably drawn to Mexico Mitchum's sequence of films south of the border coincided with the advent of the golden age of Mexico's own film industry a new cinematic wave that drew on serious artistic influences from the muralists to Sergei Eisenstein and that was led by director Emilio Fernandez and cinematographer Gabriel Figueroa whose 1943 film Mar a Candelaria starring former Hollywood siren Dolores del R o had won a prize at Cannes Under the Roosevelt administration's Good Neighbour policy a wartime effort to court friendly Latin American countries Hollywood's portrayal of Mexico changed out went the all purpose exoticism where south of the border was a metaphor for the loosening of moral and sexual standards and in came a more nuanced approach In this authoritative study Liam White encourages us to take a fresh look at how Mitchum's films broke with Hollywood convention in the way they depicted Mexico how Mexico's own film industry boomed becoming the first example of world cinema to have an impact on the post War world and how its success attracted significant US talent from John Steinbeck to John Ford to work on bi national projects

Good Neighbourhood Treaties of Poland Karina Paulina

Marczuk,2019-03-25 This volume explores the bilateral treaties concluded after 1990 between the Republic of Poland and its neighbouring states Germany then Czechoslovakia Ukraine the Russian Federation Belarus and Lithuania known as treaties on neighbourly relations or good neighbourhood treaties These treaties through which Poland and its neighbours were able to establish their political security and social relations were extremely significant in that they provided a unique way for them to organise their interstate post Cold War relations This book analyses the consequences of these treaties and addresses a variety of issues including security policy and cooperation migration national minority rights economic cooperation education and cross border cooperation      The United States in the Caribbean Rosemarie E. Stewart,1982      The Routledge

Research Companion to Border Studies Professor Doris Wastl-Walter,2012-11-28 This comprehensive volume brings together a multidisciplinary team of leading scholars to provide an authoritative state of the art review of all aspects of borders and border research It is global in scope and embraces the more traditional strands of the field including geopolitics migration and territorial identities and also recently emerging topics such as the role of borders in a seemingly borderless world creating neighbourhoods and border enforcement in the post 9 11 era      The Politics of Good Neighbourhood

Béla Filep,2016-10-04 Analyzing neighbourly relations in multicultural societies this book develops a concept of good neighbourhood and argues that cultural capital in various forms is the determining variable in building good neighbourly relations This work breaks new ground by offering a conceptual integration of different mutually interdependent forms of capital intercultural capital cross cultural social capital and multicultural capital These forms of capital are linked to different educational and cultural policies of the state as well as to civil society involvement at different levels of implementation Grounded in extensive fieldwork the book not only provides critical insights into neighbourly relations in culturally diverse border regions of East Central Europe but the concept developed through a rich theoretical base can be usefully adapted and widely applied to other contexts Scholars and graduate level students in geography international relations political science social anthropology and sociology as well as policy practitioners with an interest in the negotiation of coexistence minority issues and social and political cohesion in multicultural societies will find this an illuminating read      The Ambiguous

Figure of the Neighbor in Jewish, Christian, and Islamic Texts and Receptions Marianne Bjelland Kartzow,2021-09-12 This book examines an undertheorized topic in the study of religion and sacred texts the figure of the neighbor By analyzing and comparing this figure in Jewish Christian and Islamic texts and receptions the chapters explore a conceptual shift from Children of Abraham to Ambiguous Neighbors Through a variety of case studies using diverse methods and material chapters explore the neighbor in these neighboring texts and traditions The figure of the neighbor seems like an innocent topic at the surface It is an everyday phenomenon that everyone have knowledge about and experiences with Still analytically it has a rich and innovative potential Recent interdisciplinary research employs this figure to address issues of cultural diversity gender migration ethnic relationships war and peace environmental challenges and urbanization The neighbor represents the borderline between insider and outsider friend and enemy us and them This ambiguous status makes the neighbor particularly interesting as an entry point into issues of cultural complexity self definition and identity This volume brings all the intersections of religion ethnicity gender and socio cultural diversity into the same neighborhood paying attention to sacred texts receptions and contemporary communities The Ambiguous Figure of the Neighbor in Jewish Christian and Islamic Texts and Receptions offers a fascinating study of the intersections between Jewish Christian and Islamic text and will be of interest to anyone working on these traditions Primary Care Ethics Deborah Bowman, John Spicer, 2007 Primary Care Ethics offers a diverse range of perspectives on topical issues as well as focusing on familiar dilemmas such as vulnerable patients multidisciplinary team working whistle blowing and resource allocation The Irish Yearbook of International Law, Volume 1 2006 Jean Allain, Siobhán Mullally, 2008-02-28 The Irish Yearbook of International Law is intended to stimulate further research into Ireland's practice in international affairs and foreign policy filling a gap in existing legal scholarship and assisting in the dissemination of Irish thinking and practice on matters of international law On an annual basis the Yearbook presents peer reviewed academic articles and book reviews on general issues of international law Designated correspondents provide reports on international law developments in Ireland Irish practice in international fora and the European Union and the practice of joint North South implementation bodies in Ireland In addition the Yearbook reproduces documents that reflect Irish practice on contemporary issues of international law Publication of the Irish Yearbook of International Law makes Irish practice and opinio juris more readily available to Governments academics and international bodies when determining the content of international law In providing a forum for the documentation and analysis of North South relations the Yearbook also make an important contribution to post conflict and transitional justice studies internationally As a matter of editorial policy the Yearbook seeks to promote a multilateral approach to international affairs reflecting and reinforcing Ireland's long standing commitment to multilateralism as a core element of foreign policy

Piranha Heights Philip Ridley, 2015-02-17 Look they're fading Those liars Dissolving It's the end of their world The birth of a new one Our one Our world It's Mother's Day and mother is dead Now her two sons gather in her home to argue about the truth of their childhood But a storm is approaching with a violent new truth all of its own Piranha Heights is non stop filthily poetic and a searing insight into the disenchantment of young people today This edition featuring a revised script published to coincide with play's revival at the Old Red Lion London in November 2014 Praise for Leaves of Glass Like a shard of glass plunged straight to the heart superb Guardian Perspectives on theology of religions Jaco Beyers, Piet J. van der Merwe, Wilhelmina Magdalena Shaw, Ronald Allen Baatsen, Johannes Janse van Rensburg, Tessa Freeman, 2017-11-23 In the public theology discourse the concept public square has become significant In today's multicultural and globalised world it is inevitable that people with different religious affiliations will encounter one another in the public square Public theology cannot but become theology of religions Scholars in the field of religion studies are compelled to reflect theologically on the relevance of religiosity in the postmodern secular world The term theology of religions refers to the academic inquiry into the relationship between religions The collected essays constitute such an inquiry In the end it is not so much about the encounter of religions but rather of people Religion is no longer regarded as a monolithic body of beliefs and practices The authors concede that the concept religion is too fluid to be delineated precisely The book's approach to the relationship between religions i e theology of religions reflects how the authors understand the origin and nature of religion a theology of religion in the singular This book focuses more on theology of religions plural than on theology of religion singular The main objective of the book is to present a variety of perspectives on how theology of religions manifested in different contexts This includes historical i e Luther's theology of religions and the Roman Catholic position on other religions as taken by Vatican II as well as cultural and religious perspectives In the first chapter the editor gives a brief overview of the development of the discipline of theology of religions The postmodern era is characterised by an almost non foundational approach The second chapter traces the development of the discipline in the Roman Catholic tradition in particular This contribution is based on the insights of P J van der Merwe 1944 2014 who as researcher and Head of the Department of Science of Religion and Missiology at the University of Pretoria developed a specific theological position on non Christian religions A whole generation of theologians was trained in this school of thought He passed away in 2014 and this publication pays tribute to his life's work on religions and their relations The contributions that follow are the culmination of the research of postgraduate students at the University of Pretoria The third chapter presents a perspective on the Reformation with a particular focus on Martin Luther In this year of the quincentenary anniversary of the Reformation the legacy of Reformed belief is highlighted The fourth chapter describes the relationship between Christianity and Islam from the perspective of a willingness to embrace The fifth chapter analyses the relation between Christianity Judaism and Islam from the perspective of intergroup threat theory A model for theology of religions in a South African context is developed in the sixth and final chapter This scholarly book pays tribute to the academic contribution of P J van der Merwe mentor of the authors of these multifaceted reflections on theology of religions The target audience is specialists in the field of religion studies The distinctive contribution of the book is the innovative perspectives on the relationship between Islam and Christianity in both the Roman Catholic and Protestant contexts

The Dismantling of the Good Neighbor Policy Bryce Wood, 2010-07-22 The Good Neighbor Policy was unique a great power obligated itself not to use force in its dealings with twenty smaller powers and not to interfere in their domestic politics It was a policy that lasted with some perturbations for twenty years instituted by President Roosevelt in 1933 and carried out effectively from 1933 to 1943 by word and action maintained during the Second World War largely as a result of British concern for continuance of Argentine beef exports codified in the Charter of the Organization of American States in 1948 and reasserted by Truman and Acheson in 1950 51 it was covertly repudiated in Guatemala in 1954 by Eisenhower and the Dulles brothers and not so secretly by Kennedy in the disastrous Bay of Pigs invasion of 1961 Openly shattered in the Dominican Republic by Johnson in 1965 it has since been completely abandoned in favor of the usual relationships between large and small powers Working with documents from the Public Records Office in London and the National Archives with recently released materials from the U S Department of State and with secondary sources Bryce Wood describes the temptations laid before the leaders of one powerful state by its occasionally recalcitrant neighbors and the ways of reacting that were found Having told half the story in his The Making of the Good Neighbor Policy Wood now concludes it in the present volume One of the chief casualties is shown to be the Organization of American States which since 1954 has found itself badly crippled in its work to promote harmony and continued cooperation among the member states

Schools of Democracy Julien Talpin, 2024-10-31 Schools of Democracy offers a vivid analysis of the long term impact of engagement in participatory budgeting institutions in Europe While democratic innovations flourish around the world there have been great hopes for their potential to revitalize representative government and solve the increasing apathy of the public Based on a rich ethnographic study in France Italy and Spain this book shows how participatory institutions can encourage personal involvement by creating the procedural and social conditions conducive to the formation of a competent and involved citizenry Rather than deliberation itself it seems that informal discussions and interactions between a diverse public allow mutual learning and the beginning of a political trajectory for people at the margins of the public sphere However this book also shows that citizens can become disappointed by the little decision making power they are granted as they leave the process often more cynical than before Contains A unique study on the long term individual impact of engagement in participatory institutions While most research deal with short term impact Schools of democracy addresses impact of participation after two years of engagement Unique access to the black box of participatory institutions While research on democratic innovations generally opt for an externalist perspective Schools of democracy details the routine of deliberative interactions showing how ordinary citizens speak up in public assemblies From this perspective the book offers incredibly rich empirical material coming from ethnographic research on how participatory democracy works An original theoretical framework to the study of the individual impacts of participatory engagement While most research are based on an implicit rational choice perspective the pragmatist perspective adopted here sheds a different light on the studied phenomenon stressing the co construction of actors and their environment

Independence and the Elderly Malcolm J. Fisk, 2024-05-10 In the 1980s much research into the needs of the elderly was undertaken from the perspective of a sickness model a model which reinforced labels of elderly people as frail disabled dependent and economically unproductive Few studies adopted a positive attitude to ageing and elderly people Originally published in 1986 reissued here with a new preface this book helped to redress this imbalance by focusing on the theme of independence examined particularly from the perspective of current housing and social policies relating to elderly people at the time The author looks at sheltered housing in detail including discussion of alarm systems staying put schemes and residential homes The book was essential reading for academics and practitioners in the health and social welfare fields with a concern for the elderly and the ways in which they could retain a meaningful independence
