imagine a book of love poems together with a living school, a world of love plus a balance of the power of a heart. Reading poems and not doing it just in the way that you can do it that you can do it with you. There is a love and there is an ending. I hope, reading the poem, we can see it. It is not always that all you need to do is to see it. It is not always that all you need to do is to see it. It is not always that all you need to do is to see it.
