Fellow delegates,

Imagine a world where every breath we take just might be our last. But with every forest, every tree, disappearing with each passing moment, that reality is fast approaching.

Today, we gather as unified voices to address the climate crisis and deforestation - a crisis that transcends borders and political divisions.

The Delegation from Brazil stands firm in its belief that immediate and sustainable action is not only necessary but non-negotiable. Our position is clear: the world needs an international green fund, and operation GREEN is the only way forward.

This solution not only mitigates climate risks but fosters economic growth and job creation. Together, we can create a world that doesn't sacrifice its future for the present.

So, I leave you with this question: if not now, when? If not us, then who? Let us rise to the occasion and ensure that our actions today resonate for generations to come.

What they did right:

- Perfect use of the START formula
- Clear CTA and position outline
- Delegation name mentioned
- Project name mentioned
- Concise
- Strong conclusion

Play Directing Francis Hodge, Michael McLain, 2015-11-19 Play Directing describes the various roles a director plays from selection and analysis of the play to working with actors and designers to bring the production to life. The authors emphasize that the role of the director as an artist leader collaborating with actors and designers who look to the director for partnership in achieving their fullest most creative expressions. The text emphasizes how the study of directing provides an intensive look at the structure of plays and acting and of the process of design of scenery, costume, lighting, and sound that together make a produced play. American Accent Drills for British and Australian Speakers Amanda Quaid, 2020-02-24 American Accent Drills for British and Australian Speakers provides a comprehensive guide to learning a General American accent made specifically for native English speakers. Unlike most American accent guides which are geared toward ESL learners, this handbook covers only the shifts that English speakers need to make, nothing more, nothing less. In addition to vowel and consonant drills, it covers the finer points of American intonation and elision features that often elude English speakers of other dialects. Finally, it provides exercises for owning the dialect, finding authenticity, and making it work for each individual actor in their own way. This is an excellent resource for students of speech and dialects, actors from the UK, Australia, and New Zealand, and advanced ESL learners who need to use an American accent on screen or on stage. American Accent Drills for British and Australian Speakers also includes access to downloadable audio files of the practice drills featured in the book to help students practice and perfect their American accent. Training of the American Actor Arthur Bartow, 2006-02-01 Successful acting must reflect a society's current beliefs. The men and women who developed each new technique were convinced that previous methods were not equal to the full challenges of their time and place, and the techniques in this book have been adapted to current needs in order to continue to be successful methods for training actors. The actor's journey is an individual one, and the actor seeks a form or a variety of forms of training that will assist in unlocking his own creative gifts of expression. From the introduction: The first comprehensive survey and study of the major techniques developed by and for the American actor over the past 60 years. Each of the 10 disciplines included is described in detail by one of today's foremost practitioners. Presented in this volume are Lee Strasberg's Method by Anna Strasberg, Lee's former student widow and current director of The Lee Strasberg Theatre Institute; Stella Adler Technique by Tom Oppenheim, Stella's grandson and artistic director of the Stella Adler Institute in New York; Sanford Meisner Technique by Victoria Hart, director of the Meisner Extension at New York University; Michael Chekhov Technique and The Mask by Per Brahe, a Danish teacher inspired by Balinese dance and introduced to the Chekhov technique in Russia; Uta Hagen Technique by Carol

Rosenfeld who taught under Hagen's tutelage at the Herbert Berghof HB Studio Physical Acting Inspired by Grotowski by Stephen Wangh who studied with Jerzy Grotowski himself The Viewpoints by Mary Overlie the creator of Viewpoints theory Practical Aesthetics by Robert Bella of the David Mamet inspired Atlantic Theatre Company school Interdisciplinary Training by Fritz Ertl who teaches at the Playwrights Horizons Theatre School Neoclassical Training by Louis Scheeder director of the Classical Studio of New York University Arthur Bartow is the artistic director of the Department of Drama at New York University's Tisch School of the Arts A former associate director of Theatre Communications Group he is the author of the landmark book The Director's Voice American Illustrated Magazine ,1911
