Meditation Stephen Knapp, 2021-01-01 Perhaps no doctrine of Christian science rouses so much natural doubt and questioning as this that God knows no such thing as sin Indeed this may be set down as one of the things hard to be understood such as the apostle Peter declared were taught by his fellow apostle Paul which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest unto their own destruction Let us then reason together on this important subject whose statement in Christian Science may justly be characterized as wonderful Introspection Reginia (Regana) McKinney-McGee., 2014-01-08

Gina Phillips is hiding her pain While her work takes her all over the world she attempts to follow God's laws and love her family Even so she is battling internal demons that have caused her to push her dreams aside and live a lie The truth is that no one really knows her Gina has taken it upon herself to dispense justice in her own way As she meets one man after the other she feels nothing as she sleeps with them steals their identification and leaves them with something that will change their lives forever No one knows what she is taking or giving to the unsuspecting men except God But even as Gina continues down a dark path lined with deceit a piece of her soul seeks deliverance from the hidden secrets that have left her ashamed alone in her pain and without peace Now only time will tell if her secret will ever be exposed Introspection is the poignant story of a struggle between morality and retribution as a woman with deep secrets embarks on a life changing journey to seek justice from unwary souls The Works of the British Poets: Chaucer, Surrey, Wyatt, Sackville Robert
