The Italian American Heritage Pellegrino A

D'Acerno, 2021-12-12 First published in 1999 The many available scholarly works on Italian Americans are perhaps of little practical help to the undergraduate or high school student who needs background information when reading contemporary fiction with Italian characters watching films that require a familiarity with Italian Americans or looking at works of art that can be fully appreciated only if one understands Italian culture This basic reference work for non specialists and students offers quick insights and essential easy to grasp information on Italian American contributions to American art music literature motion pictures and cultural life This rich legacy is examined in a collection of original essays that include portrayals of Italian characters in the films of Francis Coppola Italian American poetry the art of Frank Stella the music of Frank Zappa a survey of Italian folk customs and an analysis of the evolution of Italian American biography Comprising 22 lengthy essays written specifically for this volume the book identifies what is uniquely Italian in American life and examines how Italian customs traditions social mores and cultural antecedents have wrought their influence on the American character Filled with insights observations and ethnic facts and fictions this volume should prove to be a valuable source of information for scholars researchers and students interested in pinpointing and examining the cultural intellectual and social influence of Italian immigrants and their successors Cinematic Uses of the Past Marcia Landy, 1996

Cinematic Uses of the Past was first published in 1996 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions From the first cinema has sustained a romance with the past The nature of this attachment and what it reveals about our culture is the subject of Marcia Landy's book Cinematic Uses of the Past looks at British American Italian and African films for what they can tell us about popular history and our cultural investment in certain images of the past Landy peruses six different moments in the history of cinema employing the theories of Nietzsche and Gramsci Her reading of these films explores their investments in history and memory in relation to ideas of nation sexuality gender and race Among the films she discusses are A Fistful of Dynamite The Scarlet Empress Dance with a Stranger Holocaust Schindler's List Le camp de Thiaroye Guelwaar The Leopard and Veronika Voss A thoroughly compelling reading of these emblematic films Cinematic Uses of the Past is also a revealing interpretation of popular history exposing the fragmentary tentative and invested nature of cultural memory Marcia Landy is professor of literature and film studies at the University of Pittsburgh She is the author of several books including Film Politics and Gramsci Minnesota 1995
