One Step Closer CJ Plogger, 2016-12-31 A journey is a collaboration and culmination of many steps Sometimes our steps move us forward or backwards Sometimes we take steps to the left or to the right Our goal should be that our steps move us toward a definite destination We hope that our steps are taking us nearer to that which will make us stronger better or even be greater people As our steps are crucial our end point is as well If we want to have the life that God has in store for us we need to be walking toward Him daily God has a life of peace and joy for us Not problem free but one of peace Not without tribulations or trouble but one of triumph In order for us to possess this life God has to be our end destination He has to be the one that we are focusing and He has to be the one that we are depending upon In order for us to grow in the Lord and step closer to Him we must be intentional It would be wonderful if we could just wake up and be spiritually stronger than we have ever been before But that is not reality We must be systematic and strategic if we are going to grow in the Lord This book will help and lead you to grow spiritually Jesus said If we are to follow Him we are to take up our cross daily One Step Closer is a tool that will not only strengthen us now it will impact our eternity

Do you feel prepared to initiate and facilitate meaningful productive dialogues about race in your classroom Are you looking for practical strategies to engage with your students Inspired by Frederick Douglass's abolitionist call to action it is not light that is needed but fire Matthew Kay has spent his career learning how to lead students through the most difficult race conversations Kay not only makes the case that high school classrooms are one of the best places to have those conversations but he also offers a method for getting them right providing candid guidance on How to recognize the difference between meaningful and inconsequential race conversations How to build conversational safe spaces not merely declare them How to infuse race conversations with urgency and purpose how to thrive in the face of unexpected challenges How administrators might equip teachers to thoughtfully engage in these conversations With the right blend of reflection and humility Kay asserts teachers can make school one of the best venues for young people to discuss race
