

goodbye

they saw you watching over them as they finally closed their eyes they smelt your scent as they breathed in and out for the last time they heard the way your voice broke as you told them they were loved they felt the way you held them with that gentle, farewell touch and now they watch each morning as you pass their empty bed they watch you lose composure and they see the tears you shed they hear you bear the silence of the footsteps that are gone that walk across your heart each day like echoes of a song they feel the pangs of emptiness you get when you're alone in moments when you realise that they're never coming home but in their darkest moment you were there to hold them tight and they just want the same for you so you can feel alright so they're sewing you a rainbow, weaving ribbons through the sky so they can let you know that life is good beyond goodbye so next time it is raining and the sun appears as well just feel and look and listen for what they are trying to tell they're telling you it's spring there with its showers and its sun and there are endless fields for them to stretch and play and run they're telling you they sleep upon the biggest, softest beds that they have stitched from all the clouds that float above your head they're telling you they're not alone for there are many others and they've been reunited with their parents, sisters, brothers they're showing you a rainbow so you know they won't forget you and to tell you they will always be so happy that they met you and they're telling you they love you and though they'll be dearly missed not to worry, 'cause it's beautiful beyond the rainbow bridge
