Essays in Honour of Michael Bliss Elsbeth A. Heaman, Alison Li, Shelley McKellar, 2008-03-22 A leading public intellectual Michael Bliss has written prolifically for academic and popular audiences and taught at the University of Toronto from 1968 to 2006 Among his publications are a comprehensive history of the discovery of insulin and major biographies of Frederick Banting William Osler and Harvey Cushing The essays in this volume each written by former doctoral students of Bliss with a foreword by John Fraser and Elizabeth McCallum do honour to his influence and at the same time reflect upon the writing of history in Canada at the end of the twentieth century The opening essays discuss Bliss s career his impact on the study of history and his academic record Bliss himself contributes an autobiographical essay that strengthens our understanding of the business of scholarship teaching and writing In the second section the contributors interrogate public mythmaking in the relationship between politics and business in eighteenth nineteenth and twentieth century Canada Further sections investigate the relationship between fatherhood religion and historiography as well as topics in health and public policy A final section on Medical Science and Practice deals with subjects ranging from early endocrinology lobotomy the mechanical heart and medical biography as a genre Going beyond a collection of dedicatory essays this volume explores the wider subject of writing social and medical history in Canada in the late twentieth century Diary of a Rural GP: Hilarious True

Stories from a Country Practice Michael Sparrow, 2021-01-28 Recently retired Dr Sparrow reveals with refreshing candour and dark humour the most memorable experiences of his career as a rural GP From sewing back on a patient s chiselled finger on a call out and the emergency countryside delivery inspired by James Herriot to suddenly remembering the body left in the back of a Volvo and a small oversight that blew up the local crematorium Dr Sparrow spares no blushes Repeat Prescription: Hilarious True Stories from a Country Practice Michael Sparrow, 2020-07-23 Dr Sparrow is back coping with more bizarre macabre and hilarious situations Following his successful debut with Country Doctor he once more guides us through the daily rounds of the weird and wonderful in his practice on the Devon Cornwall border What would you do if faced with the unsuccessful resuscitation of the wrong patient being held at gunpoint as a suspected terrorist or confronting a blind man who refuses to stop driving And what about the little old lady who presents you with a supermarket bag stuffed with 20 notes Add to this jets crashing on the runway fleeting glimpses of the Royal Genitalia and the haunting tale of the suicidal stranger and an abducted child and you will start to have some idea of the unpredictable life of Dr Sparrow

Goodbye Doctor Leslie Poidevin, 1986 Family Doctors Say Goodbye Lucy M. Candib, William L. Miller, 2023-08-17 This book considers the family doctor relationship and the process of ending that relationship What happens when a family doctor or someone like them deeply committed to long term relationships decides to end those commitments What s involved What are the embodied experiences for doctor and patient for doctor and staff for physician leader and others What comes next This book invites the reader to immerse in personal stories and reflections of family physicians who choose to retire from practice depart long standing leadership roles or shift from one place of deep relational commitments to something else These stories concern the particulars of family medicine and general practice but they share much with any vocation rooted in the duties challenges and rewards of relationships bound by covenant and not transaction This book is relevant to all professionals involved in healing relationships The Whole Story John E.
