Excerpt from Goodhue County Minnesota Past and Present Some one has said that pioneering tended to barbarism This may be true in some cases It depends upon the character of those who do the pioneering This book is mainly a history of the work of pioneers One who has seen their work and the results of the same ought to be able to judge of the character of the principal actors It is now between thirty and forty years since this county was taken possession of by civilized men and many of those most interested and active in laying the foundations of society here have passed away but their works do follow them It becomes those who now enjoy the fruits of their labors to imitate their virtues and preserve the memory of their sterling deeds At a meeting of the Old Settlers Association in Red Wing a few years ago the desire was expressed by a leading member that a correct history of the early days in Goodhue county might be written It was that expression that led me to undertake the collection of the facts and events herein recorded I have spared neither time nor pains to make a record of all the important events that have transpired within the limits prescribed How well I have succeeded a generous public will determine for themselves About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Goodhue County, Minnesota, Past and Present Joseph Woods Hancock, 1893 Goodhue County, Minnesota, Past and Present Joseph Woods 1816-1907 Hancock, 2021-09-09

Wood, 1907 Family War Stories Keith P. Wilson, 2024-04-16 Based on an extensive collection of letters written from the home front and the battlefield Family War Stories offers fresh insights into how the reciprocal nature of family correspondence can shape a family's understanding of the war Family War Stories examines the contribution of the Densmore family to the Northern Civil War effort It extends the boundaries of research in two directions First by describing how members of this white family from Minnesota were mobilized to fight a family war on the home front and the battlefield and second by exploring how the war challenged the family's abolitionist beliefs and racial attitudes Family War Stories argues that the totality of the family's Civil War experience was intricately shaped by the dynamics of family life and the reciprocal nature of family correspondence Further it argues that the serving sons' understanding of the war was shaped by their direct military experiences in the army camps and battlefields and how their loved ones at home interpreted these experiences With two sons serving as officers in the United States Colored Troops regiments fighting in the Mississippi Valley the Densmore family was heavily involved in destroying slavery Family War Stories analyses how the sons' military experiences tested the family's abolitionist ideology and its commitment to white racial superiority It also explains how the family sought to accommodate the presence of a refugee from slavery working in the family kitchen In some ways the presence of this worker in the household posed an even greater range of challenges to the family's racial beliefs than the sons' military service By examining one family's deep involvement in the war against slavery Wilson analyses how the Civil War posed particular challenges to Northerners committed to abolitionism and white supremacy
