Live Bodies ,2010-08-30 As a young man in the 1930s Josef battled the Nazis on the streets of Vienna He fled to New Zealand only to be interned as a dangerous enemy on Somes Island in Wellington Harbour After the war he rebuilt his life and married Nancy Despite his success Josef still stands askew from his times In his chosen home he is both an insider and an outsider and the past has become a place in which to escape and perhaps even to resolve the troubles of the present

Good words, ed. by N. Macleod Norman Macleod,1866

Cheeky Fictions ,2005-01-01 Humour is a key feature laughter a central element disrespect a vital textual strategy of postcolonial transcultural practice Devices such as irony parody and subversion can be subsumed under an interventionist stance and have accordingly received some critical attention But literary and cultural postcolonial criticism has been marked by a restraint verging on the pious towards the wider significance and functions of laughter This collection transcends such orthodoxies laughter can constitute an intervention but it can also function otherwise The essays collected here take an interest in the strategic use of what can loosely be termed laughter in all its manifestations Examining postcolonial transcultural practice from a range of disciplinary and methodological perspectives this study seeks to analyse laughter and the postcolonial in their complexity For the first time then this collection gathers a group of international specialists in postcolonial transcultural studies to analyse the functions of laughter the comic and humour in a wide range of cultural texts Contributors work on texts from Africa Asia Australia North America the Caribbean and Britain reading work by authors such as Zakes Mda Timothy Mo VS Naipaul and Zadie Smith This interdisciplinary collection is a contribution to both postcolonial studies and humour theory

Staging British South Asian Culture Jerri Daboo,2017-11-28 Staging British South Asian Culture Bollywood and Bhangra in British Theatre looks afresh at the popularity of forms and aesthetics from Bollywood films and bhangra music and dance on the British stage From Andrew Lloyd Webber s Bombay Dreams to the finals of Britain s Got Talent Jerri Daboo reconsiders the centrality of Bollywood and bhangra to theatre made for or about British South Asian communities Addressing rarely discussed theatre companies such as Rifco and phenomena such as the emergence of large scale Bollywood revue performances this volume goes some way towards remedying the lack of critical discourse around British South Asian theatre A timely contribution to this growing field Staging British South Asian Culture is essential reading for any scholar or student interested in exploring the highly contested questions of identity and representation for British South Asian communities

Hybrid Humour ,2010-01-01 An interdisciplinary and transcultural study of comedy in a pan European perspective that include East West and Southern European examples These range from humour in Polish poetry via jokes about Italian migrants in English speaking TV commercials to Turkish comedy literature and cartoons in Germany Turkish Surinamese Iranian and Moroccan literary humour in the Netherlands Beur humour in many media in France and Asian humour in literature film and TV series in Great Britain The volume is prefaced and informed by contemporary postcolonial theories that show humour not as an essential quality of each particular culture or as a common denominator of humanity but as a complex structure of dialogue conflict and sometimes resolution The volume is of interest for students and scholars of Comparative Literature Cultural Studies and Media Studies as well as for students and experts in the cultures and literatures that are covered in the collection of essays It is relevant for courses on globalisation migration and integration

Companion to Contemporary Black British Culture Alison Donnell,2002-09-11 The Companion to Contemporary Black British Culture is the first comprehensive reference book to provide multidisciplinary coverage of the field of black cultural production in Britain The publication is of particular value because despite attracting growing academic interest in recent years this field is still often subject to critical and institutional neglect For the purpose of the Companion the term black is used to signify African Caribbean and South Asian ethnicities while at the same time addressing the debates concerning notions of black Britishness and cultural identity This single volume Companion covers seven intersecting areas of black British cultural production since 1970 writing music visual and plastic arts performance works film and cinema fashion and design and intellectual life With entries on distinguished practitioners key intellectuals seminal organizations and concepts as well as popular cultural forms and local activities the Companion is packed with information and suggestions for further reading as well as offering a wide lens on the events and issues that have shaped the cultural interactions and productions of black Britain over the last thirty years With a range of specialist advisors and contributors this work promises to be an invaluable sourcebook for students researchers and academics interested in exploring the diverse complex and exciting field of black cultural forms in postcolonial Britain

Representing Culture Claudia Alvares, 2009-03-26 The essays collected in this volume are interdisciplinary in nature defying the traditional boundaries that compartmentalise and contain knowledge within particular camps Heir to the undisciplining legacy of cultural studies they attempt to transcend the restrictive frameworks of pre established discourse engaging in new and fruitful combinations of theories and methodologies The general aim of the book is to indicate new perspectives for the exercise of cultural criticism on the basis of the major issues that confront us today rather than articulate any canonical viewpoint on traditional cultural studies These essays thus share a common denominator in that they seek to explore the field of current experience through the exercise of critique The recontextualisation of cultural studies that this book attempts occurs along the vectors of identity politics visual culture and technology The collection draws attention to the fact that these vectors do not consist in delimited camps but rather in axes that intersect with each other at each instance

Enjoying the Beat of Phrase: An Emotional Symphony within Goodness Gracious Me

In a global used by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of instantaneous communication, the melodic beauty and mental symphony developed by the prepared term often diminish into the background, eclipsed by the persistent noise and interruptions that permeate our lives.
