The Death of Edward Gordon Craig Toronto Free Theatre Archives, Edward Gordon Craig, Irene Pauzer, Jan Kudelka, 1980* Gordon Craig Archives Lindsay Mary Newman, 1976 Edward Gordon Craig and Hamlet Exhibition at McLaughlin Library, 1976 Guelph Spring Festival Archives, Edward Gordon Craig, University of Guelph. Library, Edward Johnson Music Foundation, 1976 Performance Making and the Archive Ashutosh Potdar, Sharmistha Saha, 2022-11-30 This book investigates theories and practices shaped by a performance's relationship to the archive. The contributions in the volume examine how the changing nature of performance practices has made it imperative to understand how the archive and archival practices could add to the performance work. They explore a variety of themes including artistic engagement with the archive in both conceptual and material terms: physical, virtual, and digital forms; publicly and privately collected; oral, written, and digital ways; or organized and unorganized collections. Finally, the volume examines how archives are modelled on existing structure and the ways in which they can be brought into discourses and practices of performance making through engagement and contestation. A novel approach to performance theory, this volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of performance studies, media and culture studies, studies of technology and art, as also literature and literary criticism. Experimental Theatre James Roose-Evans, 2013-10-08 It is a pleasure to read. Well-written, free of cant, impressively wide-ranging. The book is really an introduction to the avant-garde. John Lahr Tracing Your Theatrical Ancestors Katharine M. Cockin, 2023-08-31 An essential source of reference for researchers trying to uncover the theatrical experience of one of their forebears. How can you find out about the lives of ancestors who were involved in the world of theater on stage and on film, in the music halls and traveling shows, in the circus and in all sorts of other forms of public performance? Katharine Cockin's handbook provides a fascinating introduction for readers searching for information about ancestors who had clearly defined roles in the world of the theater and performance, as well as those who left only a few tantalizing clues behind. The wider history of public performance is outlined from its earliest origins in church rituals and mystery plays through periods of censorship driven by campaigns on moral and religious grounds up to the modern world of stage and screen. Case studies, which are a special feature of the book, demonstrate how the relevant records can be identified and interpreted, and they prove how much revealing information they contain. Information on relevant archives, books, museums, and websites make this an essential guide for anyone who is keen to explore the subject. The Poetics of Difference and Displacement Min Tian, 2008-06-01 Intercultural theater is a prominent phenomenon of twentieth-century international theater. This book views intercultural theatre as a process of displacement and re-placement of various cultural and theatrical forces, a process which the author describes as the poetics of displacement. Capter L'essence Du Spectacle Nicole Leclercq, Kristy Davis, Laurent Rossion, Alan R. Jones, 2010 Le d fi du patrimoine immat riel est de capturer l essence du spectacle l id e de capture a cela d int ressant qu elle suppose que les professionnels impliqu s dans la SIBMAS soient

comme des chasseurs sur la piste de toutes sortes de fa ons afin de coincer et de recueillir un petit quelque chose d ph m re qui en vaut la peine et qui nous en apprend sur nous m mes et sur notre monde Certains chasseurs se servent des bases de donn es d autres des crits ou des images mais tous partagent un m me objectif ne pas laisser se perdre un moment sp cial magique que seule la vie du spectacle peut g n rer The challenge of intangible heritage is to capture the essence of performance the idea of capturing is interesting as it implies that the professionals involved in SIBMAS are on a hunt a hunt in a number of different ways to pin down and preserve something ephemeral and something worth preserving something that tells us more about ourselves and the world we live in Some hunters use the database some the written word some the camera but all share a common goal not to let go of a particular moment a magic moment that only the live event can create

German Scholars in Exile Axel Fair-Schulz, Mario Kessler, 2011-05-26 German Scholars in Exile deals with intellectuals who fled Nazi Germany and found refuge in either the United States or in American Services in Great Britain and post WWII Germany The volume focuses on scholars who were outside the commonly known Max Horkheimer Hannah Arendt circles who are less well known but not less important Their experiences ranged from an outstanding career at an Ivy League university to a return to the German Democratic Republic and a position as an economic advisor to East Berlin s party leadership None had actual political power but many asserted some degree of influence Their intellecutal legacies can still be seen in today s political culture

Architectural Excursions Donald L. Johnson, Donald Langmead, 2000-08-30 Soon after 1900 in both North America and Europe the evolution from the tradition of Mediterranean and Gallic architectural styles to modernism began This phenomenon was due in part to American industrial architecture and the work of Frank Lloyd Wright Wright s building and architectural treatises of 1898 1908 with the additional help of Dutch propaganda on his behalf significantly influenced European practitioners and theorists European architecture within and outside of Holland reflects an adaptation of Wright s theories along with the structural determinism of American industrial buildings With new evidence and fresh analysis culled from Dutch and American archives personal correspondence and professional material this study examines the weight of Wright s works and words and those of the Dutchmen H P Berlage Theo van Doesburg Jan Wils

J J P Oud William Dudok and Hendrik Theodor Wijdeveld This new insight on the effects of Wright's architectural theories and designs coupled with an extensive guide for further research will attract art and architecture scholars and historians on both sides of the Atlantic and will also be of interest to social historians artists and architects Events and new theories including the assertion that Hendrik Theodor Wijdeveld was the catalytic source behind Wright's Taliesin Fellowship established in 1932 are presented in clear accessible language Tied to the text are numerous visual presentations of significant designs and buildings

Intersectional Encounters in the Nineteenth-Century Archive Rachel Bryant Davies, Erin Johnson-Williams, 2022-08-11 Rachel Bryant Davies and Erin Johnson Williams lead a cast of renowned scholars to initiate an interdisciplinary conversation about the mechanisms of power that have shaped the nineteenth century archive to ask What is a nineteenth century archive broadly defined This landmark collection of essays will broach critical and topical questions about how the complex discourses of power involved in constructions of the nineteenth century archive have impacted and continue to impact constructions of knowledge across disciplinary boundaries and beyond academic confines The essays written from a range of disciplinary perspectives grapple with urgent problems of how to deal with potentially sensitive nineteenth century archival items both within academic scholarship and in present day public facing institutions which often reflect erotic colonial and imperial racist sexist violent or elitist ideologies Each contribution grapples with these questions from a range of perspectives Musicology Classics English History Visual Culture and Museums and Archives The result is far reaching historical excavation of archival experiences

Performing the Matrix Meike Wagner, Wolf-Dieter Ernst, 2008 Performing the Matrix Mediating Cultural Performances presents a collection of case studies and analyses dealing with performances of the matrix that take up questions of identities and social thinking visualization and perception the discursive power of texts and historiographic paradigms and artistic strategies of political intervention Since 1999 The Matrix has become a popular catchword through the homonymous Wachowski brothers movie As both a traditional concept and a popular phenomenon matrix can take on a new value when reconsidered in the light of performance studies A behind the scenes look at theatre performance political activism and events may reveal a productive mediating structure that can metaphorically be described as a matrix This mediating structure and its materializations are fundamentally reshaping modern culture Accordingly politics of visibility media networking telepresence and liveness are considered to be understood as performances of the matrix If so how does this understanding of cultural performances as always already mediatized influence contemporary concepts of performance and media

"In My Mind's Eye", 2009 Shakespeare, Performance and the Archive Barbara Hodgdon, 2015-10-23 Shakespeare Performance and the Archive is a ground breaking and movingly written exploration of what remains when actors evacuate the space and time of performance An analysis of leftovers it moves between tracking the politics of what is consciously archived and the politics of visible and invisible theatrical labour to trace the persistence of performance In this fascinating volume Hodgdon considers how documents material objects sketches drawings and photographs explore scenarios of action and behaviour and embodied practices Rather than viewing these leftovers as indexical signs of a theatrical past Hodgdon argues that the work they do is neither strictly archival nor documentary but performative that is they serve as sites of re performance Shakespeare Performance and the Archive creates a deeply materialized historiography of performance and attempts to make that history do something entirely new Barbara Hodgdon is Professor of English at the University of Michigan now retired Her major interest is in theatrical performances especially performed Shakespeare She is the author of The End Crowns All The Shakespeare Trade and most recently the Arden edition of The Taming of the Shrew

Performing Otherness M. Cohen, 2010-10-27 A far reaching examination of exoticism cultural internationalism and modernism s encounters with Indonesian tradition Performing Otherness examines how Indonesia entered world stages through imperialism as an antimodern phantasm and through nationalism became a means of intercultural communication and cultural diplomacy That Despicable Race Bryan Forbes, 1980 Guide to the Archive of Art and Design Elizabeth Lomas, 2019-09-17 The Archive of Art and Design at the Victoria Albert Museum contains Britain s foremost collection of primary source material relating to art and design particularly of the twentieth century Established in 1978 the Archive holds over 200 archives created by individual artists craftspeople and designers and businesses and societies involved in the manufacture and promotion of art and design products The Guide describes each archive in detail offering information about its creator its contents and related sources held both inside and outside the V A Museum It is an invaluable reference text for everyone with an interest in studying British art and design Ted Shawn Paul A. Scolieri, 2020 In January 1969 just months before the Stonewall Riots Ted Shawn 1891 1972 wanted to tell a story about how his life writings and dances contributed to the rapidly evolving gay liberation movement around him Shawn died before he was able to put forth a candid account about how he the Father of American Dance was homosexual but he scrupulously archived his correspondence diaries photographs and motion pictures of his dances anticipating that the full significance of his choreography would reveal itself in time Ted Shawn His Life Writings and Dances tells that story Shakespeare s Fascist Followers Richard Wilson, 2025-08-21 Richard Wilson s meticulously researched powerfully argued and brilliantly written account of Shakespeare s 20th century fascist followers is not just an important but a genuinely essential book Robert Shaughnessy Guildford School of Acting UK In this illuminating book Richard Wilson demonstrates how in the 20th century Shakespeare s plays and poems were persistently misread as documents which voiced the fascist sympathies of their author Wilson argues that the version of Shakespeare this caricature produced authoritarian jingoistic racially intolerant misogynistic was viewed with satisfaction by many of the leading figures of the century s cultural establishment in Britain and America while noting striking cases of the same bias in Germany and France Some of the names this book focuses on will surprise many of the right wing political views or leanings of the prominent figures discussed have been left unexplored or ignored from A K Chesterton who was both editor of the British

Union of Fascists newspaper Blackshirt and former manager of press and publicity at the Shakespeare Memorial Theatre to celebrated Shakespeareans such as G Wilson Knight and writers artists and theatre practitioners including W B Yeats T S Eliot Edward Gordon Craig and Marshall McLuhan At a time when democracy is under threat populism is on the rise and far right views are increasingly prominent in our political discourse Richard Wilson s book makes an especially vital contribution to Shakespeare scholarship
