The Gossamer Thread Anne Lowing, 1972 Of Gossamer Thread Ethel Messenger, 1993 The Spider's Thread Keith J. Holyoak, 2024-03-12 An examination of metaphor in poetry as a microcosm of the human imagination a way to understand the mechanisms of creativity In The Spider's Thread Keith Holyoak looks at metaphor as a microcosm of the creative imagination Holyoak a psychologist and poet draws on the perspectives of thinkers from the humanities poets philosophers and critics and from the sciences psychologists neuroscientists linguists and computer scientists He begins each chapter with a poem by poets including Samuel Taylor Coleridge Sylvia Plath Walt Whitman Emily Dickinson Robert Frost Theodore Roethke Du Fu William Butler Yeats and Pablo Neruda and then widens the discussion to broader notions of metaphor and mind Holyoak uses Whitman's poem A Noiseless Patient Spider to illustrate the process of interpreting a poem and explains the relevance of two psychological mechanisms analogy and conceptual combination to metaphor He outlines ideas first sketched by Coleridge who called poetry the best words in their best order and links them to modern research on the interplay between cognition and emotion controlled and associative thinking memory and creativity Building on Emily Dickinson's declaration the brain is wider than the sky Holyoak suggests that the control and default networks in the brain may combine to support creativity He also considers among other things the interplay of sound and meaning in poetry symbolism in the work of Yeats Jung and others indirect communication in poems the mixture of active and passive processes in creativity and whether artificial intelligence could ever achieve poetic authenticity Guided by Holyoak we can begin to trace the outlines of creativity through the mechanisms of metaphor Love Builders , Nature's Craftsmen Inez Nellie Canfield McFee, 1907 Nature's Craftsmen Henry Christopher McCook, 1907 Job in the Light of Northwest Semitic Walter L. Gods of the Morning John Lister-Kaye, 2015-08-15 Gods of the Morning follows the year through the turning of the seasons at Aigas the Highlands estate John Lister Kaye has transformed into a world renowned wildlife center John s affection wisdom and lyricism sings off every page bringing the natural world around him to life from the rookery filled with twenty nine nests and distinct bird calls to descriptions of the winter morning light from the wood mice and the squirrels preparing for winter to tracking a fox s path through the snow In particular it brings John s lifelong love of birds his gods of the morning to the fore In the Highland glens bird numbers plummet as their food supplies natural fruits and every kind of creeping crawling slithering or flying bug begin to disappear By the first frosts the hills will have emptied down to a few hardy stalwarts such as the golden eagles the raven and the irrepressible hooded crows Silence settles across the land The few species that are left frequent a changed world Soon only the buzzards and wood pigeons will hang on in the woods and the coniferous forests will be host to flocks of chaffinches tits siskins and crossbills passing through

The Darkening Spirit David Tacey, 2013-06-26 The twenty first century could well be Jung s century just as the twentieth century was Freud s Jung predicted the demise of secular humanism and claimed we would search for alternatives to science atheism and reason We would experience a new and even unfashionable appetite for the sacred Educated people however would not return to unreconstructed religions because these do not express the life of the spirit as discerned by modern consciousness The sacred has developed a darker hue and worshipping symbols of light and goodness no longer satisfies the longings of the soul The new sacred cannot be contained by the formulas of the past but nor can we live without a sense of the sacred We stand in a difficult place between traditional religions we have outgrown and a pervasive materialism we can no longer embrace These changes in our culture have come sooner than Jung might have imagined In his time Jung struck many as eccentric or unscientific But his works speak to our time since we have experienced the full gamut of Jungian transformations the unsettlement of Judeo Christian culture the rise of the feminine the onslaught of the dark side the critique of modernism and positivism and the recognition that the Western ego is neither the pinnacle of evolution nor the lord of creation A new life is needed beyond the ego but we do not yet know what it will look like The outbreak of strong religion and terrorism are signs of the times but these are expressions of a distorted and repressed spirit and not one hopes genuine pointers to the future What the future holds is uncertain but Jung s prophetic vision helps to prepare us for what is to come and this will be of great interest to analytical psychologists and psychoanalysts as well as to theologians futurists sociologists and the general reader
