hospital pregnancy childbirth and illness required a do it yourself mentality With days sometimes weeks on her own as Jim worked the farthest reaches of whatever ranchlands they currently called home and first with one child to care for and eventually with three Jolyn fought profound loneliness finding comfort in writing and company in her camera As the cowboy lifestyle pulled them further toward the brink of civilization and Jim s drinking became a liability losing him jobs and sending them packing again to yet another different distant cow camp Jolyn struggled with the knowledge that she was choosing a life of scrubbing filthy mobile home floors and bunkhouse bathrooms in order to keep her family together It would take leaving it and Jim for her to determine whether a world built on risk could coexist with the responsible mother she had needed to become With a memoir that is brave honest and heartbreakingly funny Jolyn Young has written the story of every young adventure seeker every new mother and every partner who has loved an alcoholic in a whole new light that of a campfire on the edge of the desert night miles away from cell phone reception The New York Conspiracy Trials of 1741
