Goodbye Charley:

Point of No Return Paul Osborn, 2021 Point of No Return is Marquand's popular story of a junior bank official who has bent himself toward creeping up the financial ladder until he now is within reach of the almost ultimate goal a vice presidency When he reaches this point he discovers that it isn't really what he wanted at all but it is too late for him to do anything but go on in the ocean fliers phrase he has reached the point of no return It is a cleverly made story which has a satisfying amount of praise of such cultural pursuits as book reading and anthropology and an ending which is happy enough in as much as the hero does win the vice presidency and all that goes with it Back cover Bluebonnet Michael W.

When Christopher Isherwood's A Single Man first appeared it shocked many with its frank sympathetic and moving portrayal of a gay man in maturity. Isherwood's favorite of his own novels it now stands as a classic lyric meditation on life as an outsider. Welcome to sunny suburban 1960s Southern California. George is a gay middle-aged English professor adjusting to solitude after the tragic death of his young partner. He is determined to persist in the routines of his former life. A Single Man follows him over the course of an ordinary twenty-four hours. Behind his British reserve tides of grief, rage, and loneliness surge but what is revealed is a man who loves being alive despite all the everyday injustices. The involvement of these men in her life provides much anticipation and excitement as well as several thought-provoking situations for Casey to deal with. It is Casey's experiences of friendship, loss, lust, and worries along with her dreams which she decides to share in an Online Diary. American Pastimes: The Very Best of Red Smith \(The Library of America) Red Smith, 2013-05-16 Walter Wellesley Red Smith was the most widely read sportswriter of the last century and the first to win the Pulitzer Prize for commentary. From the 1940s to the 1980s his nationally syndicated columns for the New York Herald Tribune and later for The New York Times traversed the world of sports with literary panache and wry humor. I've always had the notion Smith once said that people go to spectator sports to have fun and then they grab the paper to read about it and have fun again. Now writer and editor and inventor of Rotisserie League Baseball, Daniel Okrent presents the best of Smith's inimitable columns: miniature masterpieces that remain the gold standard in sportswriting. Here are Smith's indelible profiles of sports luminaries which show his gift for distilling a career's essence in a single column. Unforgettable accounts of historic occasions: Bobby Thompson's "Shot Heard Round the World," Don Larsen's perfect game in the 1956 World Series, the first Ali-Frazier fight are joined by more offbeat stories that display Smith's unmistakable wit, intelligence, and breadth of feeling. Here too are more personal glimpses into Smith's life and work revealed in stories about his lifelong passion for fishing and in "My Press Box Memoirs," a 1975 reminiscence for Esquire collected here for the first time. A Special Publication of The Library of America.
