Hopkins,2023-08-18 In Off Whiteness Place Blood and Tradition in Post Reconstruction Southern Literature Izabela Hopkins explores the remaking of whiteness in the Post Reconstruction South as represented in literary fiction To focus her study she discusses the writings of four prominent figures Thomas Nelson Page Ellen Glasgow Charles Waddell Chesnutt and Alice Dunbar Nelson who contributed to discussions of racial and social identity during the post Civil War South through poetry journalism essays novels and more Off Whiteness draws from both sides of the color line as well as from both the male and female experience to examine the ambivalence of Southern whiteness from three particular vantage points place ideality and repeatability Hopkins develops her analysis across nine chapters divided into three parts In her exploration of these four writers with differing backgrounds and experiences she utilizes both their well known and lesser known texts to argue against the superficial oversimplification that whiteness requires blackness to define itself Hopkins s analysis not only successfully grapples with a wide range of post structural theories it also approaches the significance of language and religion with intention and sensitivity thereby addressing areas that are typically ignored in whiteness studies scholarship The interdisciplinary nature of Off Whiteness positions it as an engaging text relevant to the work and interests of scholars drawn to American and Southern history cultural and social studies literary studies etymology and critical race theory
