The Métis of Senegal Hilary Jones, 2013-03-18 The Métis of Senegal is a history of politics and society among an influential group of mixed race people who settled in coastal Africa under French colonialism Hilary Jones describes how the métis carved out a niche as middleman traders for European merchants As the colonial presence spread the métis entered into politics and began to assert their position as local elites and power brokers against French rule Many of the descendants of these traders continue to wield influence in contemporary Senegal Jones's nuanced portrait of métis ascendancy examines the influence of family connections marriage negotiations and inheritance laws from both male and female perspectives

Muslim Interpreters in Colonial Senegal, 1850-1920 Tamba M'bayo, 2016-07-01 This book investigates the lives and careers of Muslim African interpreters employed by the French colonial administration in Saint Louis Senegal from the 1850s to the early 1920s It focuses on the lower and middle Senegal River valley in northern Senegal where the French concentrated most of their activities in West Africa during the nineteenth century The Muslim interpreters performed multiple roles as mediators military and expeditionary guides emissaries diplomatic hosts and treaty negotiators As cultural and political powerbrokers that straddled the colonial divide they were indispensable for French officials in their relations with African rulers and the local population As such a central concern of this book is the paradoxical and often contradictory roles the interpreters played in mediating between the French and Africans This book argues that the Muslim interpreters exemplified a paradox while serving the French administration they pursued their own interests and defended those of their local communities In doing so the interpreters strove to maintain some degree of autonomy Moreover this book contends that the interpreters occupied a vantage position as mediators to influence the construction of colonial discourse and knowledge because they channeled the flow of information between the French and the African population Thus Muslim interpreters had the capacity to shape power relations between the colonizers and the colonized in Senegal The French Encounter with
