Gospel in the Grocery Store Kay D. Rizzo, 1988 Gospels or Biographies? The Gospels as Folk Literature Ryder Wishart, 2024-03-11 Challenging the widely accepted classification of the canonical gospels as biographies or historiographies the author argues that they should be classified as collections of folk literature from early Christianity Drawing on comparative register analysis and re introducing literary and sociolinguistic insights from the twentieth century form critics this insightful study challenges readers to rethink the significance of gospels for understanding Jesus s historical context and relevance for modern readers The gospels are not merely designed to inform readers about the life of Jesus but also to push readers into accepting or rejecting his teaching It is a must read for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of the gospel genre and the intentions of the evangelists who compiled them An Introduction to The Gospels Mitchell G. Reddish, 2011-09-01 An Introduction to the Gospels is designed to be a textbook for courses on the Gospels for use at the college and beginning seminary level Reflecting the most recent scholarship and written in an accessible style the volume covers all four of the Gospels including a survey of the world of the Gospels The book opens with a discussion of the origin development and interrelationships of the Four Gospels After a chapter length treatment of each canonical Gospel and the non canonical Gospels the work concludes with a discussion of the historical Jesus debate In An Introduction to the Gospels Mitchell G Reddish provides a solid convenient survey of the Gospels in an accessible textbook format presents up to date scholarship in a field that has been dominated by older texts gives a balanced presentation of the content of the Gospels

Fiore, O.F.M., 2010-10-12 Pope John XXIII in using the word aggiornamento in reference to the Second Vatican Council actually challenged the present day Christian world to apply Scripture and tradition to modern and contemporary situations It is in that spirit that the author has written this book As professor of literature for many years specializing in the Great Books Professor Fiore takes timeless Gospel themes and examines how these biblical motifs are often echoed in some of our most beautiful and stimulating present day creations Some of the writers covered here are John Steinbeck Flannery O Connor Tennessee Williams Shirley Jackson Franco Zeffi relli and others Some of the theater works are Waiting for Godot Raisin in the Sun Man of La Mancha The Fantasticks and Our Town some of the fi lms are Moonstruck Schindler s List La Dolce Vita Shawshank Redemption Life is Beautiful La Strada and Brideshead Revisited A concerted effort for a personal style has been made in order to present an intimate and readable approach to life the arts and their Gospel infl uences The Evolution of the Gospel in the Bible Lou Wislocki, 2019-10-19 The Bible is shown to be a collection of human documents reflecting the faith and worldview of ancient people The Bible should be appreciated as human literature Some authors claimed divine authority while others did not

DIFFERENCES BETWEEN JOHN AND THE SYNOPTIC GOSPELS Dr. Jack Neubauer, 2011-12-23 Anyone who has done a serious study of the Gospel of John and then sought to compare that Gospel with Matthew Mark and Luke found that they were immediately confronted with many differences Over the years I have studied all the Gospels and this has increased my interest in how others were handling these differences both in their teaching and in their sermons To my surprise most of the people consulted have never made an honest effort to have some answer for these differences Furthermore I have not been able to locate any books that speak to the one problem of these differences

Why John Wrote a Gospel Tom Thatcher, 2012-11-01 Nineteen hundred years ago someone called the Beloved Disciple told stories about Jesus and his days on earth including reports of what Jesus did and said These stories had been told for decades but then someone took the stories and wrote them down turning them from oral tradition into the book we know as the Gospel of John Scholars have long concentrated on the content of this Fourth Gospel analyzing how it differs from the Gospels of Matthew Mark and Luke and wondering how the different Gospels relate to the Jesus of history Thatcher builds on all this previous scholarship to ask new and exciting questions Why was this Gospel written Why would these followers of Jesus turn the oral stories into written Gospel In exploring the reason for writing the Fourth Gospel Thatcher focuses on how stories and written texts operate to reflect and to create memory within groups of people He uncovers how early Christians strove to remember Jesus in the decades after his ministry and how Christians came into conflict with one another about which memories were best With this interest in the social memory of early Christians Thatcher provides original insights into the Gospel of John and shows new answers to old questions Writing in an engaging and accessible style Thatcher uses numerous diagrams and modern parallels to show how Gospel texts shape the memory and identity of Christian communities not only in the ancient world but today as well

Gospel Discipleship Participant Guide Michelle J. Morris, 2020-03-31 There was a time when discipleship was taken for granted It was assumed that people could be persuaded to believe and that each person would step into the path that took them to Jesus That assumption is no longer valid As early as the Gospels Jesus and his biographers recognize that each person brings experience to the journey which travels through different times and places The discipleship path for each individual disciple is assessed and determined through this Gospel Discipleship Participant Guide while the Gospel Discipleship Congregation Guide serves as the implementation guide for church leaders It also assesses the discipleship path for the congregation as a whole By understanding what type of disciple you are participants in Gospel Discipleship can clarify the path they need to walk Some people love to go on mission trips some people really thrive learning from a great teacher some people connect to God through painting and music and some people just want to have a cup of coffee and talk about life and eventually get around to talking about Jesus Participants in Gospel Discipleship can be set free from the guilt of not feeling like a real disciple because they don't feel called to experience the journey the same way as everyone else Instead participants can become the disciple Jesus wants them to be They can spend their valuable time and energy living and walking on the path where Jesus is calling them to follow
