Bajaj, 2021-04-08 Over the past five decades both peace education and human rights education have emerged distinctly and separately as global fields of scholarship and practice Promoted through multiple efforts the United Nations civil society grassroots educators both of these fields consider content processes and educational structures that seek to dismantle various forms of violence as well as move towards cultures of peace justice and human rights Educating for Peace and Human Rights Education introduces students and educators to the challenges and possibilities of implementing peace and human rights education in diverse global sites The book untangles the core concepts that define both fields unpacking their histories and conceptual foundations and presents models and key research findings to help consider their intersections convergences and divergences Including an annotated bibliography the book sets forth a comprehensive research agenda allowing emerging and seasoned scholars the opportunity to situate their research in conversation with the global fields of peace and human rights education

Peace Education for Violence Prevention in Fragile African Societies Maphosa, Sylvester B., Keasley, Alphonse, 2019-02-10 Though conflicts among African nations diminished at the end of the last millennium the need for peace remains a perennial concern for African citizens within their communities and countries Once again Maphosa and Keasley have engaged a collection of scholar practitioners to address the query What's Going to Make a Difference in Contemporary Peace Education around Africa The contributing authors draw from daily headlines as well as African literature to unearth twenty first century quandaries with which educators in formal and informal contexts are called upon to grapple The What's Going to Make a Difference authors offer insights to educators peace education practitioners and parents for everyday living The authors probe the wisdom of the recent and ancient past and bring forth pearls for contemporary moments All in discerning effort to respond to the guiding question the editors and their contributing colleagues deliver a compelling set of revelations for Making a Difference in Peace Education for African and world citizens

Elise Boulding Mary Lee Morrison, 2015-09-15 Elise Boulding has been among the most influential of social reformers to advocate the integration of peace studies and women's studies. Her ideas inspired a number of works addressing the role of the family in producing social change and discussing women's unique capacity for promoting peace through nurturing and networking. Boulding's additional ideas on transnational networks and their relationship to global understanding are considered seminal contributions to modern peace studies and have earned her the title of matriarch of the 20th century peace movement. This biography is divided into three parts. The first and third deal chronologically with the life of Elise Boulding beginning with her childhood experiences as a Scandinavian immigrant. The 1940 Nazi invasion of Norway significantly influenced her concepts of pacifism and Quaker spiritualism, laying the foundation for her future work as a leader in the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom and her dynamic professional partnership with and marriage to the internationally known Quaker economist and poet Kenneth Boulding. Part Two expounds upon Boulding's philosophy of education, her role as a member of the Religious Society of Friends, her espousal of the conceptual evolution of cultures of peace, and her theoretical work in women's studies and peace research. In recognition of these achievements, Boulding has been the recipient of more than 19 awards and was a 1990 nominee for the Nobel Peace Prize.

Three Decades of Peace Education around the World Robin J. Burns, Robert Aspeslagh, 2014-01-14. First Published in 1996. The current world order poses new challenges to the theory and practice of peace education. Drawing on data gathered from around the world, Burns and Aspeslagh focus on how peace is presented in formal and informal educational settings and what effects ideologies have in shaping that presentation. The book views peace education in the context of education about other major social and political issues and in a variety of geopolitical settings, exploring factors that affect the generation, selection, organization, transmission, and evaluation of knowledge for peace. Following a review of major approaches to policy and praxis in peace education, the editors draw on original research to offer interpretations based on pragmatic, normative, and conceptual approaches to the individual, the state, and the role of political literacy. The use of a comparative educational framework that goes beyond curriculum studies and descriptive case studies presents a perspective that is innovative and timely. The volume includes both bibliography and index.

Handbook of Research in the Social Foundations of Education Steven Tozer, Bernardo P. Gallegos, Annette Henry, Mary Bushnell Greiner, Paula Groves Price, 2011-07-05. This groundbreaking volume helps readers understand the history, evolution, and significance of this wide-ranging, often misunderstood and increasingly important field of study.

Peace Education in a Postmodern World Ian M. Harris, 2013-12-16 This special issue of the Peabody Journal of Education provides a comprehensive overview of the latest developments in peace education reform School reforms based upon principles of peace education have in common a belief in the power of peace to create a positive learning climate in schools and to address the problems of violence in the broader culture A peace education strategy for improving school productivity rests upon three main assumptions 1 Violence contributes to the poor performance of many students 2 Adults in school settings need to address problems created by violence in order for schools to improve 3 Anxieties that make it hard for students to master traditional subject matter can best be addressed by a comprehensive peace education strategy that makes school a safe place to learn and provides students with knowledge about alternative nonviolent ways to resolve conflicts Peace building reforms go beyond responding to immediate forms of violence that may be overwhelming students and teachers to promoting positive images of peace through the study of nonviolence Written by established experts in the field of peace education from six different countries this collection of articles not only represents a wide variety of peace education practices from different corners of the globe but it also represents varying academic perspectives Educators can play a key role in helping human societies progress toward more sustainable ways of living by implementing peacemaking peacekeeping and peace building strategies in school programs Peace education reforms point to a new way of thinking about schools as vehicles for promoting a peace culture through insights offered by nonviolent theory
