Educating Artistic Vision:

Educating Artistic Vision Elliot W. Eisner, 1972 Surveys the status of elementary art education programs the growth of a child's aesthetic perception and creativity and the current trends in art curricula development Evaluating and Assessing the Visual Arts in Education Douglas Boughton, Elliot W. Eisner, Johan Ligtoet, 1996-01-01 Developing a Curriculum Model for Civically Engaged Art Education Sara Scott Shields, Rachel Fendler, 2023-07-31 This volume explores art as a means of engendering youth civic engagement and draws on research conducted with young people in the United States to develop a unique curriculum model for civically engaged art education CEAE Combining concepts from civics and arts education chapters posit that artistic thinking making and acting form the basis for creative research into social and political issues which affect young people and are key to promoting civic participation Focusing on critical creative and dynamic forms of youth cultural production inspired by local people places and events the text demonstrates how educators curricular choices can engage students in researching social movements and arts based activism The authors draw from well established areas such as arts based research civic engagement and maker centered learning to present their educational model through illustrative examples Offering a timely consideration of the relationship between art education and civics education this book will appeal to scholars and students of the sociology of education as well as arts and teacher research and pre service teacher education Why Art Cannot Be Taught James Elkins, 2001-05-17 He also addresses the phenomenon of art critiques as a microcosm for teaching art as a whole and dissects real life critiques highlighting presuppositions and dynamics that make them confusing and suggesting ways to make them more helpful Elkins's no nonsense approach clears away the assumptions about art instruction that are not borne out by classroom practice For example he notes that despite much talk about instilling visual acuity and teaching technique in practice neither teachers nor students behave as if those were their principal goals He addresses the absurdity of pretending that sexual issues are absent from life drawing classes and questions the practice of holding up great masters and masterpieces as models for students capable of producing only mediocre art He also discusses types of art including art that takes time to complete and art that isn't serious that cannot be learned in studio art classes The Development and Education of the Mind Howard Gardner, 2006-06-28 Leading American psychologist and educator Howard Gardner has assembled his most important writings about education Spanning over thirty years this collection reveals the thinking the concepts and the empirical research that have made Gardner one of the most respected and cited educational authorities of our time Trained originally as a psychologist at Harvard University Howard Gardner begins with personal sketches and tributes to his major teachers and mentors He then presents the work for which he is best known the theory of multiple intelligences including a summary of the original theory and accounts of how it has been updated over the years Other seminal papers featured include education in the arts the nature of understanding powerful ways in which to assess learning broad statements about the educational enterprise how education is likely to evolve in the globalised world of the twenty first century Art in the Early Years Kristen Ali Eglinton, 2003-12-16 This book is a complete art education resource for all involved in early years art education Teachers trainee teachers or nursery teachers who wish to implement a more holistic art curriculum in the classroom whilst meeting all the required Rethinking Basic Design in Architectural Education Mine Ozkar, 2017-03-27 Rethinking Basic Design in Architectural Education provides historical and computational insights into beginning design education for architecture Inviting the readers to briefly forget what is commonly known as basic design it delivers the account of two educators Denman W Ross and Arthur W Dow from the turn of the twentieth century in Northeast America interpreting key aspects of their methodology for teaching foundations for design and art This alternate intellectual context for the origins of basic design as a precursor to computational design complements the more haptic more customized and more open source design and fabrication technologies today Basic design described and illustrated here as a form of low tech computation offers a setting for the beginning designer to consciously experience what it means to design Individualized dealings with materials tools and analytical techniques foster skills and attitudes relevant to creative and technologically adept designers The book is a timely contribution to the theory and methods of beginning design education when fast changing design and production technology demands change in architecture schools foundations curricula Aesthetic Theory Across the Disciplines Max Ryyänen, Zoltán Somhegyi, 2023-11-13 What is aesthetics How is it related to other disciplines The chapters of this book examine the history theoretical conditions and connection points between aesthetics and other disciplines At the same time the authors are also interested in practical clashes of methodology and agenda especially when it is not merely about the securing of the position of one or the other discipline but is used in a dialogical manner as the form of understanding better the nature of both as well as the benefits of their collaboration The authors work on the border of aesthetics and at least one other academic field Through their regular scholarly activities the contributors constantly benefit from cross and interdisciplinary practice and this makes them ideal interpreters of these methodological questions Contributors include Mami Aota Karl Axelsson Paul Duncum Lisa Giombini Oiva Kuisma Jacob Lund Tyrus Miller Max Ryyänen Mateusz Salwa Zoltán Somhegyi Wendy Steiner and Joseph Tanke Subject Teaching in Primary Education Patrick Smith, Lyn Dawes, 2014-03-20 An essential read for trainee and newly qualified teachers covering all key areas of the primary curriculum There is a real sense of experienced and enthusiastic practitioners writing about what makes good and why with lots of clear practical examples of how to put ideas into practice Jackie Keith Deputy Head and Programme Leader for School Direct London East Teacher Training Alliance To be a successful teacher in primary schools you need to have an informed understanding of a wide range of subjects This book provides clear guidance of good practice teaching different subjects in primary education informed by current curriculum directions and full of practical advice for the classroom Key features Clear links to the 2014 National Curriculum in England In the classroom examples from schools demonstrate
