Reclaiming Education for Democracy Paul Shaker, Elizabeth E. Heilman, 2010-04-26 Reclaiming Education for

Democracy subjects the prophets and doctrines of educational neoliberalism to scrutiny in order to provide a rationale and vision for public education beyond the limits of No Child Left Behind The authors combine a history of recent education policy with an in depth analysis of the origins of such policy and its impact on professional educators The public face of these policies is separated from motives rooted in politics profit and ideology The book also searches for new insights in understanding the neoliberal and managerialist assault on education by examining the psychology of advocates who demonstrate a special animus toward universal public education The manipulation of public education by No Child Left Behind is a case study in the general approach to public institutions taken by the politicians and theorists in these camps K 12 education has been subjected to deceptive descriptive analyses marginalization of its professional leadership manipulation of its goals the imposition of illegitimate quality markers a grab on its resources by corporate profiteers and a demoralization of its rank and file This book helps us think beyond this new commonsense of education Recipient 2009 AERA Division K Award for Exemplary Research in Teaching and Teacher Education

Unequal By Design Wayne Au, 2010-04-26 Unequal

By Design critically examines high stakes standardized testing in order to illuminate what is really at stake for students teachers and communities negatively affected by such testing This thoughtful analysis traces standardized testing s origins in the Eugenics and Social Efficiency movements of the late 19th and early 20th century through its current use as the central tool for national educational reform via No Child Left Behind By exploring historical social economic and educational aspects of testing author Wayne Au demonstrates that these tests are not only premised on the creation of inequality but that their structures are inextricably intertwined with social inequalities that exist outside of schools
