Educational theory and its foundation disciplines edited by Paul H. Hirst, 1983

Handbook of Educational Ideas and Practices (Routledge Revivals) Noel Entwistle, 2015-08-11 First published in 1990 the Handbook of Educational Ideas and Practices was written for practitioners and students in the field of education and its related services and was designed to appeal to educationists no matter what their nationality Focusing mainly on compulsory schooling it provides summaries of the thinking research findings and innovatory practices current at the time However the book is also careful to present a complete picture of education and therefore includes a separate section for education beyond school which covers pre school level post secondary level and adult and continuing education There are also other chapters dealing with aspects of organization curriculum and teaching in various forms of tertiary education Indeed each topic has been discussed by an acknowledged expert writing in sufficient detail in order to resist trivialization

Routledge Library Editions: Philosophy of Education Various Authors, 2022-07-30 This set of 21 volumes originally published between 1955 and 1997 amalgamates several topics on the philosophy of education with a particular focus on religious education curriculum studies and critical thinking This collection of books from some of the leading scholars in the field provides a comprehensive overview of the subject and will be of particular interest to students of philosophy education and those undertaking teaching qualifications

Education and Psychology in Interaction Brahm Norwich, 2002-11 The author takes an in depth look at how these subjects relate to each other and at the current state of this relationship He develops the theme that despite differences in aims education and psychology are interconnected

International Library of the Philosophy of Education Charles

Bailey, 2021-07-09 International Library of the Philosophy of Education reprints twenty four distinguished texts published in this field over the last half century and includes works by authors such as Reginald D Archambault Charles Bailey Robin Barrow Norman J Bull D E Cooper R F Dearden Kieran Egan D W Hamlyn Paul H Hirst Glenn Langford D J O Connor T W Moore D A Nyberg R W K Paterson R S Peters Kenneth A Strike I A Snook John and Patricia White and John Wilson Themes discussed include Liberal education moral education the aims of education the education of teachers adult continuing education and the philosophical analysis of education Education, Values and Mind (International Library of the Philosophy of Education Volume 6) David Cooper, 2010-02-25 The subjects discussed in this volume range from political education to the education of the emotions and from motivation to the training of teachers Apart from its value as a testimony to Professor Peters impact the volume will stimulate reflection on central issues in the philosophies of education mind and value Routledge Encyclopaedia of Educational Thinkers Joy A. Palmer Cooper, 2016-05-20 The Routledge Encyclopaedia of Educational Thinkers comprises 128 essays by leading scholars analysing the most important influential innovative and interesting thinkers on education of all time Each of the chronologically arranged entries explores why a particular thinker is significant for those who study education and explores the social historical and political contexts in which the thinker worked Ranging from Confucius and Montessori to Dewey and Edward de Bono the entries form concise accessible summaries of the greatest or most influential educational thinkers of past and present times Each essay includes the following features concise biographical information on the individual an outline of the individual s key achievements and activities an assessment of their impact and influence a list of their major writings suggested further reading Carefully brought together to present a balance of gender and geographical contexts as well as areas of thought and work in the broad field of education this substantial volume provides a unique history and overview of figures who have shaped education and educational thinking throughout the world Combining and building upon two internationally renowned volumes this collection is deliberately broad in scope crossing centuries boundaries and disciplines The Encyclopaedia therefore provides a perfect introduction to the huge range and diversity of educational thought Offering an accessible means of understanding the emergence and development of what is currently seen in the classroom this Encyclopaedia is an invaluable reference guide for all students of education including undergraduates and post graduates in education or teacher training and students of related disciplines Understanding and Researching Professional Practice , 2019-02-11 Understanding and researching professional practice is crucial both to enhancing the quality of professional learning and to improving professional education more generally Yet professional practice remains something that is little known theoretically and philosophically despite a longstanding interest in what might be called the meta field of professional practice learning and education The contributors to this book drawn from fields such as education allied health psychology and business explore different aspects of practice in the professions professionalism and research This includes engaging with the burgeoning literature on practice theory and philosophy including the increasingly influential neo Aristotelian tradition and taking account of growing interest in practice thinking across contemporary scholarship It considers issues such as the primacy of practice the nature of professional judgement the role of experience ethics context and the practitioner standpoint As such it raises important and timely questions about practice ontologies epistemologies and methodologies and also praxis and politics This is especially needed in a context otherwise increasingly organised by neoliberalism economic rationality anxious managerialism and what some see as a general drive towards de professionalisation and new nuances and intensities of regulation

For Education Carr, Wilfred, 1995-02-01 In this text Carr provides a justification for reconstructing educational theory and research as a form of critical inquiry In doing this he confronts such philosophical questions as what is educational theory what is an educational practice and how are theory and practice related
