Educational Planning Concepts Strategies And Practices:

Educational Planning Robert V. Carlson, Gary Awkerman, 1991 Educational Planning Roger A. Kaufman, Jerry John Herman, Kathi Watters, 2002 Expert presentation of holistic planning for a learner focused educational system Integrates curriculum facilities personnel finance educational technology and other significant planning tactics IJER Vol 12-N1 International Journal of Educational Reform, 2002-12-24 The mission of the International Journal of Educational Reform IJER is to keep readers up to date with worldwide developments in education reform by providing scholarly information and practical analysis from recognized international authorities As the only peer reviewed scholarly publication that combines authors voices without regard for the political affiliations perspectives or research methodologies IJER provides readers with a balanced view of all sides of the political and educational mainstream To this end IJER includes but is not limited to inquiry based and opinion pieces on developments in such areas as policy administration curriculum instruction law and research IJER should thus be of interest to professional educators with decision making roles and policymakers at all levels turn since it provides a broad based conversation between and among policymakers practitioners and academicians about reform goals objectives and methods for success throughout the world Readers can call on IJER to learn from an international group of reform implementers by discovering what they can do that has actually worked IJER can also help readers to understand the pitfalls of current reforms in order to avoid making similar mistakes Finally it is the mission of IJER to help readers to learn about key issues in school reform from movers and shakers who help to study and shape the power base directing educational reform in the U S and the world Planning Educational Facilities for the Next Century Glen I. Earthman, 2003-01-10 This book takes a systematic approach to planning educational facilities discussing in detail each phase of the process of planning capital projects and the responsibilities of those in the schools who make decisions regarding the buildings in which students learn The book also speaks to the moral responsibility of educators to ensure students are in safe functional and efficient structures Planning Educational Facilities for the Next Century covers it all from planning to hiring the architect to managing the construction phase Planning in School Administration Ward Sybouts, 1992-03-30 Because schools must operate in a changing environment educators must manage change whether they wish to or not Administrators must plan accordingly and the best plans spring from a solid theoretical base This comprehensive handbook provides that base Sybouts draws on systems theory to develop effective approaches to strategic and operational planning in education The text evolved from case studies of successful planning in local school districts and from a national survey of education faculty Sybouts emphasizes that the human dimension of educational planning is paramount and that leadership and vision are essential to the effective management of change The volume begins with a rationale for improved planning in educational administration Sybouts then lucidly explains the fundamentals of systems theory and provides a theoretical frame for the rest of the book He turns his attention to strategic and operational planning and explores the relationship between the two He then discusses key planning techniques including trend analysis mathematical projections and flow charts The book closes with practical guidelines on how to manage change and implement planning in school systems This handbook is a valuable reference for administrative planners and education professionals and is a ready source of both theoretical and practical information

Planning Educational Facilities Glen I. Earthman, 2009-05-16 Planning Educational Facilities provides a detailed discussion of all of the processes involved in planning a school building From a discussion on how to organize the local staff to the final evaluation of the building the separate processes are described in detail The responsibility of the educator and school board are discussed in such a way that individuals on the local level should feel confident in the knowledge of the planning process gained from this book The relationship between the school board and the architect are described in detail and an example of an architect's contract is given Other examples of contracts are provided The process of contracting with a contractor is discussed in detail In addition some alternative methods of contracting for such services are provided A section on green schools is included because this is an important way to construct buildings A chapter on problem based activities is provided which should give the reader an opportunity to experience some of the problems educators actually face in this planning process
