

EDITING YOUR NEWSLETTER

www.pearsoned.com

1. The first step in editing your newsletter is to determine the purpose of the newsletter. Are you trying to inform your readers about a new product or service? Are you trying to build a relationship with your readers? Or are you trying to promote a specific event or organization?

2. Once you have determined the purpose of the newsletter, you can begin to gather information. This may include researching the latest news in your field, interviewing experts, or conducting surveys.

3. After you have gathered your information, you can begin to write the newsletter. It is important to keep your writing clear and concise, and to use a professional tone.

4. Once you have finished writing the newsletter, you should proofread it carefully for errors. This includes checking for spelling, grammar, and punctuation mistakes.

5. Finally, you should format the newsletter to make it easy to read. This may include using a clean, professional layout, and using bold and italicized text to highlight important information.
