University-Community Partnerships Tracy Soska, Alice K Johnson Butterfield, 2013-05-13 Examine how your university can help solve the complex problems of your community Community Outreach Partnership Centers COPC sponsored by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development HUD have identified civic engagement and community partnership as critical themes for higher education This unique book addresses past present and future models of university community partnerships COPC programs wide ranging social work partnerships that involve teaching research and social change and innovative methods in the processes of civic engagement. The text recognizes the many professions, schools, and higher education institutions that contribute to advancing civic engagement through university community partnerships. One important contribution this book makes to the literature of civic engagement is that it is the first publication that significantly highlights partnership contributions from schools of social work which are rediscovering their community roots through these initiatives.

University Community Partnerships: Universities in Civic Engagement documents how universities are involved in creative individual faculty and program partnerships that help link campus and community partnerships that are vital for teaching, research, and practice. Academics and practitioners discuss outreach initiatives, methods of engagement with an emphasis on community organization, service learning, and other teaching/learning methods, research models, participatory research, and high engagement techniques used in university community partnerships. The book includes case studies, historical studies, policy analysis, program evaluation, and curriculum development.

University Community Partnerships: Universities in Civic Engagement examines the increasing civic engagement of institutions of higher education, civic engagement projects involving urban nonprofit community-based organizations and neighborhood associations, the developmental stages of a COPC partnership, problems faced in evaluating COPC programs, civic engagement based on teaching and learning, how pre-tenure faculty can meet research, teaching, and service requirements through university community partnerships, developing an MSW program structured around a single concentration of community partnership, how class, race, and organizational differences are barriers to equality in the civic engagement process.

University Community Partnerships: Universities in Civic Engagement is one of the few available academic resources to address the importance of social work involvement in COPC programs. Social work educators, students, and practitioners, community organizers, urban planners, and anyone working in community development will find it invaluable in providing guidance for community problem solving and creating opportunities for faculty, students, and community residents to learn from one another.
