Dictionary of American Library Biography Donald G. Davis, 2003-01-30 This second supplement to DALB the Dictionary of American Library Biography 1978 adds 77 notable deceased members of the library and archival communities to the 302 entries in the main volume and the 51 entries in the first supplement 1990 The second supplement includes primarily those figures who died between 1987 and the end of the year 2000 though some 13 entries provide sketches for notable persons whose death dates are somewhat earlier and who were not included in earlier works Among the entries are a number of African Americans and nearly one half of the entries are women Some 80 contributors from the United States and Canada provided sketches many based on original source material This supplement follows the practice and format of the earlier volumes though it allows presidents of the American Library Association to compete for inclusion with other nominations

Pioneers and Leaders in Library Services to Youth Marilyn Miller, 2003-08-30 This compilation of 97 biographical essays celebrates public and school library service to children and young adults through the professional lives and contributions of its pioneers and leaders Devoted entirely to the field of youth library services the essays represent both outstanding librarians in the field as well as those whose work has made significant contributions supporting the work of professional youth librarians Sketches include modern day workers spanning the late 19th century until 1999 Will inspire young people as it underscores the continuing importance of youth library services
