

'Education for Leisure' by Carol Ann Duffy

Today I am going to kill something. Anything.
I have had enough of being ignored and today
I am going to play God. It is an ordinary day, a sort of grey with boredom stirring in the streets.

I squash a fly against the window with my thumb.
We did that at school. Shakespeare. It was in another language and now the fly is in another language.
I breathe out talent on the glass to write my name.

I am a genius. I could be anything at all, with half the chance. But today I am going to change the world.
Something's world. The cat avoids me. The cat knows I am a genius, and has hidden itself

I pour the goldfish down the bog. I pull the chain.
I see that it is good. The budge is panicking.
Once a fortnight, I walk the two miles into town for signing on. They don't appreciate my autograph.

There is nothing left to kill. I dial the radio and tell the man he's talking to a superstar.
He cuts me off. I get our bread-knife and go out.
The pavements glitter suddenly. I touch your arm.

This poem is a monologue of an anonymous person who is very violent and destructive. The main reason for his/her condition is boredom and being ignored. The speaker decides to take power over his life and to make some changes.

In the first stanza the speaker decides to kill something because he wants to make his life more interesting and dramatic. The speaker says 'anything' which implies that he is not bothered about who or what he is going to kill because he kills only for pleasure, he doesn't have some particular reason for killing. In the second verse 'I have had enough of being ignored' he displays his anger and frustration. The speaker wants 'to play God', to have control over things because he doesn't want to be ignored anymore. He wants attention. He describes ordinary day as 'grey with boredom stirring in the streets'. The color 'grey' indicates something dull, not interesting or attractive. In fact, he describes his emotions and mood not just an ordinary day.
