children Literacy Leader Fellowship Program Reports: no.1. Learning to think, learning to learn: what the science of thinking and learning has to offer adult education Eunice Nicholson Askov,2000 Literacy Leader Fellowship Program Reports ,1996 Pursuing Instructional Effectiveness in Higher Education Edwin George Ralph,2004 The title of this book has two meanings One meaning expresses a sense of relief that during the last several years post secondary institutions have begun to pay serious attention to the enhancement of instruction on their campuses There has been an emergence of new organisations associations conferences seminars and workshops a proliferation of books journals and articles an expansion of research and investigative inquiry and a growth of interest among post secondary faculty members and administrators all of which are devoted to various aspects of the improvement of both teaching and learning at the undergraduate level These initiatives have combined to furnish undeniable evidence attesting to the pursuit of better teaching and learning in higher education Increasing numbers of post secondary educators students and tax payers at large not only welcome wholeheartedly this new emphasis and as suggested by the last clause in the title they feel it has been long overdue A second interpretation of the title and the one which is a key theme of this book emphasises the substantive concept of the use and management of time and timing as an integral component of effective instruction From the Introduction The Principalship Frederick C. Lunenburg,Beverly J. Irby,2022-08-04 Today s emphasis on student learning outcomes coupled with federal legislation to that end has placed more demands on the role of the principal than ever before in our nation s history To address the heightened demands for greater accountability for student learning The Principalship uses a learning centered approach one that emphasizes the role of the principal as the steward of the school s vision learning for all The critical aspects of the teaching learning process are addressed here including student motivation individual differences classroom management assessing student learning and developing maintaining and changing school culture In addition several topics not found in other principalship texts are addressed including school safety special education gifted education bilingual education nontraditional organizational structures gender inclusive theories diversity ethics political and policy context human resource management legal issues and collective bargaining The book is documented extensively throughout and grounded in the latest research and theory with suggestions for applying theory to practice reflecting cutting edge research and topical issues facing principals in schools today ACEIVE 2018 Sriadhi,Janner Simarmata,Harls Evan R Siaahaan, Robbi Rahim, The 2nd Annual Conference of Engineering and Implementation on Vocational Education ACEIVE 2018 is a scientific forum for scholars to disseminate their research and share ideas This conference was held on November 3 2018 on the Digital Library of Universitas Negeri Medan North Sumatra Province Indonesia The ACEIVE s theme is Engineering and Application for Industry 4 0 The conference was attended by researchers experts practitioners and observers from all around the globe to explore various issues and debates on research and experiences discuss ideas of empowering engineering and implementation on vocational education for Understanding Teacher Stress in an Age of Accountability Richard Lambert, Christopher McCarthy, 2006-03-01 School districts today face increasing calls for accountability during a time when budgets are stretched and students' needs have become increasingly complex The teacher's responsibility is to educate younger people but now more than ever teachers face demands on a variety of fronts In addition to teaching academic content schools are responsible for students' performance on state wide tests They are also asked to play an increasingly larger role in children's well being including their nutritional needs and social and emotional welfare Teachers have shown themselves to be more than capable of taking up such challenges but what price is paid for the increasing demands we are placing on our schools Understanding Teacher Stress in an Age of Accountability is about the nature of teachers stress and the resources they can employ to cope with it Accountability is a two way street and the authors in this volume suggest remedies for reducing teacher stress and in all likelihood increasing student learning greater administrative support more and better instructional materials specialized resources targeted at demanding children parental support and professional recognition Readers will discover that lack of funding low pay concerns about academic performance and student misbehavior and increased public and governmental scrutiny are not exclusive to the United States In this volume the third in a series on Research on Stress and Coping in Education authors from Australia Turkey Malaysia and the Netherlands sound the same alarms post the same warnings and draw similarly disturbing conclusions

College Student Self-Efficacy Research Studies Terence Hicks, Michael McFrazier, 2014-02-11 College Student Self Efficacy Research Studies offers three uniquely designed sections that provide a unique mixture of research studies conducted on African American Mexican American and first generation college students This book explores a variety of factors affecting a diverse group of college students including institutional commitment college adjustment and social and academic self efficacy barriers

Cognitive and Educational Psychology for TESOL Andrzej Cirocki, Bimali Indrarathne, Sharon McCulloch, 2024-08-19 This volume has been written specifically with TESOL teacher educators practitioners and classrooms in mind It is divided into three sections cognitive aspects of language learning individual differences and language learning difficulties and challenging behaviours Structured in this way it enables TESOL teacher educators and practitioners to better understand how language learners process and retain new information improving their overall ability to learn and remember In addition to supporting TESOL teacher educators and practitioners in promoting effective language learning this volume explains individual differences among language learners and the importance of developing learners emotional social and behavioural skills while addressing learning difficulties disorders disabilities and challenging behaviours whenever required The individual chapters are written in an accessible style to enable readers to explore various psychological concepts in their pedagogical practice by engaging in reflective teaching through action research This volume is a vital resource for pre and in service language teachers and will encourage language teacher educators to reassess their existing practices Chapter 2 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com
