Educational Psychology Cases For Teacher Problem Solving:

Educational Psychology Cases for Teacher Problem Solving Rita Silverman, William M. Welty, Sally Lyon, 1993-01-01

Educational Psychology Rita Silverman, Sally Lyon, William M. Welty, 1993-09 This casebook features 15 cases each one documenting a particular classroom event or series of related events and most ending with a dilemma that the teacher must resolve A range of ideas can be suggested and critically evaluated and a plan of action can be developed with fallback positions available The case discussions give students the opportunity to develop a consistent problem solving method that they can later apply to various classroom situations

Case Studies for Teacher Problem Solving Rita Silverman, William Welty, Sally Lyon, 1995-12-01 This book of 37 problem solving case studies in Education can be used either as a core text for instructors who teach by the case study method or as a supplementary text for instructors who want to supplement their instruction at either the undergraduate or graduate level The book's sections correspond to core courses in the teacher education curriculum A problem solving case is a story based on an actual situation but a story without an end a story that leaves the student reader puzzling over what to do Problem solving cases can be short and simple or rich in detail and multi layered in problems but they share the distinction of being based on reality and of ending with a problem or dilemma to solve Their goal is to encourage student generated analysis

Educational Psychology Cases for Teacher Decision-making Gordon E. Greenwood, H. Thompson Fillmer, 1999 Case material is presented mainly in dialogue format and cases are left open ended in order to provoke discussion analysis and decision making Each case begins with a listing of psychological theories and sets of principles for analyzing and resolving the case provides other relevant materials

Case Studies in Educational Psychology Patricia P. Willems, Alyssa R. Gonzalez-DeHass, 2017-12-06 This case study book serves as a valuable tool for professors and instructors of educational psychology It contains 18 cases that represent current areas of interest in Educational Psychology embedded within current challenges that teachers face in today's elementary grade classrooms The cases are organized into six major parts Human Development Individual Differences and Diversity Learning Theories Motivation Classroom Management Instructional Approaches and Assessment and Evaluation Each case describes a detailed teaching scenario written from either the student or the teachers perspective To engage students in critical thinking perspective taking analysis problem solving and decision making the cases have been intentionally written without a conclusion Because the cases are open ended it allows the professor or instructor more flexibility and autonomy in how they use the cases Each case is followed by thought provoking questions highlighting the significant issues in the case from which to analyze the case and apply various theoretical viewpoints While the cases do not replace actual classroom experience they present a way to immerse students in the classroom's culture by providing them with real life teaching examples
