Edward Ardizzone Alan Powers, 2016 Edward Ardizzone RA 1900-79 was one of relatively few British artists who defined the field of illustration for their generation. Although his work as an artist and illustrator was wide ranging it is for his illustrated children's books almost continuously available since they were first published from the late 1930s onwards that he is best known. This book provides the first fully illustrated survey of Ardizzone's work analysing his activity as an artist and illustrator in the context of 20th century British art illustration printing and publishing. Copiously illustrated with many previously unpublished images Edward Ardizzone Artist and Illustrator also contributes more broadly to the current reassessment and investigation of mid 20th century British art and illustration. Alan Powers author of the bestselling Eric Ravilious Artist and Designer has written a critically considered text which draws for the first time on the family's archives those of Ardizzone's publishers and conversations with those who knew the artist. This beautiful and enlightening book which reflects in its design and production values the aesthetic of an artist who was closely involved in the production of his own illustrated books will be a fascinating read both for specialists as well as for readers who have grown up with the unforgettable characters of Ardizzone's classic children's stories

Sketches for Friends Edward Ardizzone, 2002 Edward Ardizzone one of England's most beloved artists and illustrators was also an artist who could never resist the temptation of filling his letters to family and friends with enchanting vignettes and sketches. Like all of his work these were done quickly humorously and lovingly with a sure touch for outline wash and color that always distinguished his work. For the first time here is a selection of those letters envelopes and illustrations selected and edited by Judy Taylor longtime children's book editor at the Bodley Head and among Ardizzone's closest friends and correspondents

Ravilious & Co. Andy Friend, 2017-07-11 A dynamic tale of art and friendship set between the World Wars against the backdrop of a rapidly changing world Eric Ravilious is one of the best known twentieth century English artists. For many his watercolors capture the spirit of midcentury England. But while he had a style of his own

he did not work in isolation he worked within a network of artists that included fellow students at the Royal College of Art such as Edward Bawden Barnett Freedman Enid Marx Percy Horton Peggy Angus and Helen Binyon The story of this beloved artist is also a biography of the group of fellow creators with whom he associated men and women who inspired challenged and influenced one another from their student days up through the Second World War Drawing on extensive research Andy Friend considers the predecessors in the English watercolor and wood engraving tradition that influenced the group's art and demonstrates the significance of women artists whose place within this interwar era network has often been neglected Published to coincide with the seventy fifth anniversary of Ravilious's death Ravilious Co accompanies an exhibition of the same name touring throughout England in 2017 Edward Ardizzone's World Nicholas Ardizzone, Edward Ardizzone, 2000 A catalogue raisonne of Edward Ardizzone's work as a printmaker this is also an explanation of the processes and techniques used by the artist whose reputation as a book illustrator and official war artist continues to grow in the centenary year of his birth Written for Children John Rowe Townsend, 1996-05-01 This revised and updated edition provides children's and young adult librarians teachers literature classes and library school classes with an authoritative history and analysis of the best British and American children's literature through 1994 with a new 2003 postscript including such recent phenomenons as J K Rowling and Philip Pullman Written for Children traces the development of children's literature from its origins through the beginnings of the multimedia revolution In effortless and entertaining style Townsend a world renowned authority in the field examines the changing attitudes toward children and their literature and analyzes the various strands that make up this important field While examining many well known American classics Townsend also looks at British works that American audiences may have overlooked With illustrations and bibliography Handbook of Modern British Painting and Printmaking 1900-90 Alan Windsor, 2022-02-23 Originally published in 1998 The Handbook of Modern British Painting and Printmaking 1900 1990 has been designed for people who enjoy study and buy British art The only portable dictionary style guide to the life and work of modern British painters and printmakers the book provides information on some 2 000 artists as well as entries on schools of art on museums galleries and collections on societies and groups and critics and patrons who have influenced the development of modern art in Britain Compiled by scholars the entries are cross referenced and each concise biographical outline provides the relevant facts about the artist's life a brief characterisation of the artist's work and major bibliographic references Wherever possible one or two suggestions for further reading are cited John Rothenstein in the Interwar Years David McCann, 2023-07-12 Appointed in 1938 Sir John Rothenstein was the first director of the Tate to embrace modern art mounting a series of daring exhibitions and procuring a procession of audacious masterworks that in the words of one contemporary completely knocked the stuffiness out of that veritable institution So why since he died in 1991 has his name become a byword for reactionary conservatism The answer is that from the outset of his career Rothenstein refused to bow to the patriarchs of the avant garde In the 1920s while they were busy decrying the figurative tradition Rothenstein was championing a brilliant generation of artists whose work remained firmly rooted within it In the 1930s while they advocated a geometrical art of the utmost austerity Rothenstein used his first curatorial positions to promote a new wave of exciting young British realists Pitted against the progressives of Hampstead and Bloomsbury and inspired by the anti vanguardism of his father and Wyndham Lewis this book charts Rothenstein s earliest efforts to champion modern realistic painting in an age of abstraction Along the way it uncovers his selfless and pioneering patronage of artists as diverse as Stanley Spencer Edward Bawden Evelyn Dunbar Paul Nash Charles Mahoney and Eric Ravilious In so doing it also establishes his importance in the reassessment of twentieth century figuration going on today ABHB
