It is important that the management and administration of the program be based on sound statistical design principles, including: (a) careful selection of the sample to be studied; (b) selection of appropriate statistical tests; (c) proper interpretation of the results; and (d) proper reporting of the results.

Private employment is closely related with, aspects of organizing at home and in providing technology-related employment. During these days there is growing pressure on businesses strategically different product portfolio and increasing turnover rate of labour. This situation requires innovation and adaptation strategies. Several groups have worked on different approaches to do so effectively. One of the key is that they provide a platform for business with their customers. But private sector has to change this situation and organizations are in business. This is the key to success.
 Companies have to adapt and be able to provide a new product/service. This is the key to success.
 Companies have to adapt and be able to provide a new product/service. This is the key to success.
