Economic Analysis of Neighbourhood Quality, Neighbourhood Reputation and the Housing Market M. Koopman, 2012-02-29 Residents know exactly what their neighbourhood is like House hunters on the other hand must find out for themselves about the intangible social quality of a neighbourhood As a simple rule of thumb neighbourhood reputation can offer them an assessment of neighbourhood quality In this research regression analyses are applied to test whether neighbourhood reputations are being used as a proxy measure for neighbourhood quality in residential mobility choices and establishing the price of homes The empirical results go beyond answering this research question What price for instance do residents place on liveability Why does urban restructuring so often fail to change the social make up of an area despite a marked increase in owner occupation Why does gentrification appear to emerge spontaneously while deliberate attempts to gentrify an area often fail How does a neighbourhood acquire that golden edge This book also provides the answers to the above policy oriented questions Marketing Farm Products, Economic Analysis Geoffrey Seddon Shepherd, 1969 Handbook of the Economics of Marketing, 2019-09-21 Handbook of the Economics of Marketing Volume One Marketing and Economics mixes empirical work in industrial organization with quantitative marketing tools presenting tactics that help researchers tackle problems with a balance of intuition and skepticism It offers critical perspectives on theoretical work within economics delivering a comprehensive critical up to date and accessible review of the field that has always been missing This literature summary of research at the intersection of economics and marketing is written by and for economists and the book s authors share a belief in analytical and integrated approaches to marketing emphasizing data driven result oriented pragmatic strategies Marketing Farm Products Geoffrey Seddon Shepherd, 1962 Economic Analysis of Property Rights Yoram Barzel, 1997-04-13 This is a study of the way individuals organise the use of resources in order to maximise the value of their economic rights over these resources Marketing of Brands: an Economic Analysis Lomax, Watkins, 2005-04-29 Economic Analysis of the Arbitrator's Function Bruno Guandalini, 2020-06-16 Economic Analysis of the Arbitrator s Function Bruno Guandalini Arbitration has become an important market where arbitrators are rational economic agents maximizing their utility Although this is self evident it is rarely discussed This penetrating book is the first to comprehensively analyze the market for arbitrators and arbitrators economic role within it In great depth the author tackles such salient issues as the following effect of perceived inefficiencies and high costs on arbitration legitimacy alleged commercialization of the arbitrator's function possible ethical problem raised by financial remuneration for rendering justice what motivates a person to arbitrate market for arbitrators functioning and failures providing a better understanding of how actors could behave in such a specific market structural and artificial entry barriers effect of an arbitrator's strategic behavior on the arbitrator's function limitations on an arbitrator's rationality and preventing and correcting these limitations Numerous references to customs and procedures in major arbitral jurisdictions and to international laws and conventions affecting the efficiency of the arbitrator's function are included Pursuing a non prescriptive analysis the author draws on the discipline of law and economics rational choice theory behavioral economics and psychological work on bounded rationality Understanding the arbitrator's function as a legal institution that is influenced by the market this pioneer in developing and systematizing the study of the market for arbitrators and how it works will prove of inestimable value to all stakeholders in the arbitration market Arbitrators policymakers regulators and academics will be enabled to open the way to a more efficient market for arbitrators and betterment in arbitration worldwide
