Contemporary Black British and African American Women Writers Jean Wyatt, Sheldon George, 2020-01-28

Contemporary African American and Black British Women Writers Narrative Race Ethics brings together British and American scholars to explore how in texts by contemporary black women writers in the U S and Britain formal narrative techniques express new understandings of race or stimulate ethical thinking about race in a reader Taken together the essays also demonstrate that black women writers from both sides of the Atlantic borrow formal structures and literary techniques from one another to describe the workings of structural racism in the daily lives of black subjects and to provoke readers to think anew about race Narratology has only recently begun to use race as a category of narrative theory This collection seeks both to show the ethical effects of narrative form on individual readers and to foster reconceptualizations of narrative theory that account for the workings of race within literature and culture

A Thickness of Particulars Jonathan F. S. Post, 2015 A Thickness of Particulars The Poetry of Anthony Hecht uses Hecht's own correspondence to present the first book length study of one of the great formal poets of the later twentieth century 1923 2004

Metamorphoses of Travel Writing Grzegorz Moroz, 2010-02-19 This book reflects comments on and adds to a fast growing field of travel writing studies The twenty five papers in this volume rely on a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches and explore a diverse body of travel writing texts created over the last three hundred years in English Polish Hungarian and French The book is divided into three parts The first one includes papers which apply the findings of post structuralism generic and cultural criticism as well as narratology to explore theories canons and genres in travel writing drawing material not only from non fictional and fictional prose narratives but also from poetry and tragedy The second and third parts contain papers on a wide selection of travel writing texts both fictional and non fictional written in Anglophone as well as other literary traditions They are arranged chronologically the second part is devoted to texts written in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries while the third part focuses on those written in the twentieth and twenty first centuries
