Edward Borein Edward Borein,1999 Capturing the Range Edward Borein,Jamie Hart,Owings Gallery,2010

Open Range Darlis A. Miller,2011-12-05 Agnes Morley Cleaveland found lasting fame after publishing her memoir No Life for a Lady in 1941 Her account of growing up on a cattle ranch in west central New Mexico captivated readers from coast to coast and it remains in print to this day In her book Cleaveland memorably portrayed herself and other ranchwomen as capable workers and independent thinkers Her life however was not limited to the ranch In Open Range Darlis A Miller expands our understanding of Cleaveland s significance showing how a young girl who was a fearless risk taker grew up to be a prolific author and well known social activist Following a hardscrabble childhood in remote regions of northern and central New Mexico and then many years of rigorous education Agnes Morley married Newton Cleaveland in 1899 The couple took up primary residence in Berkeley California where Agnes lived another kind of life as clubwoman and activist Yet Agnes s ranch in the Datil Mountains always drew her back to New Mexico and provided the raw material for her writing Seen as a whole Cleaveland s life story spans the years from territorial New Mexico to the Cold War includes the raising of her four children and interactions with a wide range of national and regional characters and provides insight into such aspects of western culture as railroads cattle and tourism Her biography is a case study in the roles that wealthy and well educated women played during the first half of the twentieth century in both domestic and political spheres and will intrigue anyone familiar with the writings of this multifaceted woman American Printmakers of the Twentieth Century

Donald E. Smith,2004 Sunset ,1903 Guide to Life and Literature of the Southwest, with a Few Observations J. Frank Dobie,2022-09-15 This guide book is a bibliography of books about the American West by various authors compiled by the literary critic J Franck Dobie The list is subdivided along themes associated with the different aspects of life in the West such as Native American culture Spanish influences French influences Texas Rangers Missionaries Women pioneers and Mountain men culture among others Each aspect is preceded by a brief discussion of the topic before the list of books themed on the subject Edward Borein, Cowboy Artist Harold G. Davidson,Edward Borein,1974 Shows of Force Timothy W.

Luke,1992 It has long been considered a mark of na vet to ask of a work of art What does it say But as Timothy W Luke demonstrates in Shows of Force artwork is capable of saying plenty and much of the message resides in the way it is exhibited By critically examining the exhibition of art in contemporary American museums Luke identifies how art showings are elaborate works of theater that reveal underlying political social and economic agendas The first section Envisioning a Past Imagining the West looks at art exhibitions devoted to artworks about or from the American West Luke shows how these exhibitions displaying nineteenth and early twentieth century works by artists such as George Caleb Bingham Frederic Remington Frederic Edwin Church and Georgia O Keefe express contemporary political agendas in the way the portray the past and shape new visions of the West In Developing the Present Defining a World Luke considers artists from the post 1945 era including Ilya Kabokov Hans Haacke Sue Coe Roger Brown and Robert Longo Recent art exhibits his analysis reveals attempt to develop politically charged conceptions of the present which in turn struggle to define the changing contemporary world and art s various roles within it Luke brings to light the contradictions encoded in the exhibition of art and in doing so illuminates the political realities and cultural ideologies of the present Shows of Force offers a timely and surely controversial contribution to current discussions of the politics of exhibiting art Sunset , Money for Nothing Sir Pelham Grenville Wodehouse,1952-01-01 The picturesque village of Rudge in the Vale dozed in the summer sunshine Along its narrow High Street the only signs of life visible were a cat stropping its backbone against the Jubilee Watering Trough some flies doing deep breathing exercises on the hot window sills and a little group of serious thinkers who propped up against the wall of the Carmody Arms were waiting for that establishment to open At no time is there ever much doing in Rudge s main thoroughfare but the hour at which a stranger entering it is least likely to suffer the illusion that he has strayed into Broadway Piccadilly or the Rue de Rivoli is at two o clock on a warm afternoon in July You will find Rudge in the Vale if you search carefully in that pleasant section of rural England where the gray stone of Gloucestershire gives place to Worcestershire s old red brick Quiet in fact almost unconscious it nestles beside the tiny river Skirme and lets the world go by somnolently content with its Norman church its eleven public houses its Pop to quote the Automobile Guide of 3 541 and its only effort in the direction of modern progress the emporium of Chas Bywater Chemist Chas Bywater is a live wire He takes no afternoon siesta but works while others sleep Rudge as a whole is inclined after luncheon to go into the back room put a handkerchief over its face and take things easy for a bit But not Chas Bywater At the moment at which this story begins he was all bustle and activity and had just finished selling to Colonel Meredith Wyvern a bottle of Brophy s Paramount Elixir said to be good for gnat bites Having concluded his purchase Colonel Wyvern would have preferred to leave but Mr Bywater was a man who liked to sweeten trade with pleasant conversation Moreover this was the first time the Colonel had been inside his shop since that sensational affair up at the Hall two weeks ago and Chas Bywater who held the unofficial position of chief gossip monger to the village was aching to get to the bottom of that With the bare outline of the story he was of course familiar Rudge Hall seat of the Carmody family for so many generations contained in its fine old park a number of trees which had been planted somewhere about the reign of Queen Elizabeth This meant that every now and then one of them would be found to have become a wobbly menace to the passer by so that experts had to be sent for to reduce it with a charge of dynamite to a harmless stump Well two weeks ago it seems they had blown up one of the Hall s Elizabethan oaks and as near as a toucher Rudge learned had blown up Colonel Wyvern and Mr Carmody with it The two friends had come walking by just as the expert set fire to the train and had had a very narrow escape Thus far the story was common property in the village and had been discussed nightly in the eleven tap rooms of its eleven public houses But Chas Bywater with his trained nose for news and that sixth sense which had so often enabled him to ferret out the story behind the story when things happen in the upper world of the nobility and gentry could not help feeling that there was more in it than this He decided to give his customer the opportunity of confiding in him California: Land of homes, by F.J. Taylor John Russell McCarthy,1929 History of the Cattlemen of Texas Harwood P. Hinton,1991 The Kennedy Quarterly ,1976

Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library. Art and Architecture Division,1975 Land of Homes Frank J. Taylor,1929 The West Explored ,1988 As James H Nottage writes in the preface The Gerald Peters Collection of Western Art has a range that expresses many different trends techniques and schools in the art history of the American West Do not look at the painted canvas for images of dress and equipment as in James Walker s brilliant oil Roping Wild Horses Observe pieces such as Thomas Moran s Green River Wyoming and think of the painter as a visionary image maker for the painter s realm has done much to romanticize our perceptions of the American West These paintings were the first visual communications of the vast grandeur of the West and the wild beauty of its inhabitants Featuring 37 artists including John James Audubon Albert Bierstadt Karl Bodmer Henry Farny Alfred Jacob Miller Thomas Moran Frederick Remington and many others The Sunset ,1903 Scribner's Monthly, an Illustrated Magazine for the People ,1911

The American Cowboy Harold McCracken,1973 A popular history with full color paintings and drawings by famous artists of the old West The Man without a Gun Lauran Paine,2017-11-01 Two tales of action adventure and the Wild West from a founding master of the genre Lauran Paine In The Crescent Scar one man trying his best to stay on the straight and narrow is Sadler Carrel Once upon a time he was a notorious outlaw known as the Gila River Kid but he left his violent past behind to work a cattle ranch always careful to keep the crescent shaped scar the only known identifying mark from his former life carefully covered But when the railroad comes to town putting up fences that keep his cattle from the water and grazing land the only one that can protect everything that Sadler Carrel built is the Gila River Kid In The Man without a Gun Jack Swift didn t choose not to carry a gun it chose him After he served his sentence for horse thieving he was told it s illegal for a former convict to wear a gun So he went unarmed into the Arizona territory where he found a small cattle town settled down and became a respected local businessman But when Jack s young lame friend steals a horse to run from a cruel uncle Jack goes after him unarmed because he knows full well that the uncle does carry a gun and won t hesitate to use it
