The Psychology of Leadership David M. Messick, Roderick M. Kramer, 2004-09-22 In this book some of the world's leading scholars come together to describe their thinking and research on the topic of the psychology of leadership Most of the chapters were originally presented as papers at a research conference held in 2001 at the Kellogg School of Management of Northwestern University The contributions span traditional social psychological areas as well as organizational theory examining leadership as a psychological process and as afforded by organizational constraints and opportunities The editors goal was not to focus the chapters on a single approach to the study and conceptualization of leadership but rather to display the diversity of issues that surround the topic Leadership scholars have identified a host of approaches to the study of leadership What are the personal characteristics of leaders What is the nature of the relation between leaders and followers Why do we perceive some people to be better leaders than others What are the circumstances that evoke leadership qualities in people Can leadership be taught And so on The contributions to this book examine these important questions and fall into three categories conceptions of leadership factors that influence the effectiveness of leadership and the consequences and effects of leadership on the leader All in all the chapters of this volume display part of a broad spectrum of novel and important approaches to the study of the psychology of leadership We hope that they are equally useful to those who are or would be leaders and to those who study the topic As recent events have served to remind us it is too important a topic to be ignored by psychologists     Leadership in Theological Education, Volume 1 Fritz Deininger,Orbelina Eguizabal,2017-04-14 The ICETE Programme for Academic Leadership IPAL was officially established in 2010 and arose out of the need to provide training to theological institutions in different regions of the world IPAL provides a three year cycle of four day seminars for the professional development of evangelical academic leaders to help institutions in their pursuit of quality and excellence This publication is the first of three volumes intended to accompany and support the IPAL seminars as well as independently providing wider access to the principles required by academic leaders for institutional development Each chapter shares and illustrates the contributors expertise in and understanding of education leadership and administration in the field of evangelical academic institutions With an intentional awareness of a wide range of non Western contexts this volume is a much needed guide for senior administrators around the world     Resources in Education ,1999-10     The ^AChurch Leader's Counseling Resource Book Cynthia Franklin Ph.D.,Rowena Fong,2011-02-01 This all in one guide is designed to better equip clergy to meet their churches needs in a spiritually grounded and scientifically sound manner Succinct easy to read chapters summarize all a pastor needs to know about a given problem area including its signs or symptoms questions to ask effective helping skills and most importantly when to refer to a mental health professional
