Effective Sales Incentive Compensation John Wilson Barry, Porter Henry, 1981

The Complete Guide to Sales Force Incentive Compensation Andris A. Zoltners, Prabhakant Sinha, Sally E. Lorimer, 2006 Designing an incentive plan to turn sales reps into sales superstars If you're like most sales leaders your incentive program is a constant challenge as you try to jumpstart sales energize a geographically dispersed and autonomous workforce and motivate salespeople to achieve ambitious revenue goals And sometimes it seems like you just don't know what works your products and markets are changing the incentive program that was so successful last year no longer produces the desired results or perhaps the generous incentive program you created has yielded a corps of highly paid salespeople who spend most of their time on existing clients and minimal time generating new business and threaten to walk away with your customer base if you scale back paychecks Incentive programs are seductively powerful but complicated instruments Without careful planning and implementation they can be too stingy to motivate too complex to understand too quick to reward mediocre results and too difficult to implement But a well designed and implemented incentive program is an essential tool for building a motivated highly effective sales force that delivers the results you need

The Oxford Handbook of Strategic Sales and Sales Management David W. Cravens, Kenneth Le Meunier-FitzHugh, Nigel F. Piercy, 2012-11-22 The Oxford Handbook of Strategic Sales and Sales Management is an unrivalled overview by leading academics in the field of sales and marketing management Sales theory is experiencing a renaissance driven by a number of factors including building profitable relationships creating delivering brand value strategic customer management sales and marketing relationships global selling and the change from transactional to customer relationship marketing Escalating sales and selling costs require organisations to be more focused on results and highlight the shifting of resources from marketing to sales Further the growth in customer power now requires a strategic sales response and not just a tactical one The positioning of sales within the organisation the sales function and sales management are all discussed The Handbook is not a general sales management text about managing a sales force but will fill a gap in the existing literature through consolidating the current academic research in the sales area The Handbook is structured around four key topics The first section explores the strategic positioning of the sales function within the modern organisation The second considers sales management and recent developments The third section examines the sales relationship with the customer and highlights how sales is responding to the modern environment Finally the fourth section reviews the internal composition of sales within the organisation The Handbook will provide a comprehensive introduction to the latest research in sales management and is suitable for academics professionals and those taking professional qualifications in sales and marketing
