

Mary Magdalene had not stayed in the garden long enough to hear the angel's message. Now she returned, longing to find where her Lord had been laid. Entering the garden again, she looked for the empty grave and wept. Then she stopped when, toward her, in the field where Jesus' body had been,

They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?"

She replied, "Because they have taken away my Lord and I do not know where they have laid him." Then turning around she saw Jesus himself standing near. But tears blinded her eyes, and she did not know him.

He, too, asked, "Why do you weep?"

Supposing him to be the gardener, she said, "Sir, if you have carried away my Lord, tell me where you have laid him."

Then Jesus said, "Mary!" and she knew his voice. What joy filled Mary's heart! She fell at his feet and cried, "Master!"

Jesus said, "Go at once and tell my friends that I will ascend to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God."

While these things were happening, the soldiers were telling the chief priests what had taken place in the garden. The chief priests were greatly alarmed. They quickly called Jesus' other enemies, and they wondered what to do. They offered the soldiers much money, and they would promise to tell no one that Jesus had risen or that an angel had opened the tomb.

The Roman soldiers cared nothing about the Jews and their religion. They gladly took the money and went away. And when they questioned about the disappearance of Jesus' body, they said the disciples stole it while they slept.

Stranger on the Road to Emmaus

After the Feast was over, and visitors at Jerusalem were going home. Along the road leading to Emmaus, a village seven miles from Jerusalem, two men walked slowly with bowed heads. They talked about Jesus' trial and crucifixion and about the
