Egypt Through An American Woman's Eyes:

Egypt Through an American Woman's Eyes Nancy Lattif, 2003-11-25 This story tells about the people and culture of Egypt from a first time perspective with a touch of romance The reader will hear feel taste and smell all that is mysterious to the people of the Western world Try to imagine flying alone across the Atlantic Ocean for the first time to meet your fiancée face to face knowing that the customs of a Middle Eastern country are far different than what is known in the U S Also a legend or two rumors and beliefs are finally explained Come experience Egypt

Foreigners and Egyptians in the Late Egyptian Stories Camilla Di Biase-Dyson, 2013-06-17 In Foreigners and Egyptians in the Late Egyptian Stories Camilla Di Biase Dyson applies systemic functional linguistics literary theory and New Historicist approaches to four of the Late Egyptian Stories and shows how language was exploited to establish the narrative roles of literary protagonists The analysis reveals the shifting power dynamics between the Doomed Prince and his foreign wife and the parody in the depiction of the Hyksos ruler Apophis and his Theban counterpart Seqenenre It also sheds light on the weight of history in the sketch of the Rebel of Joppa and the general Djehuty and explains the interplay of social expectations in the encounters between the envoy Wenamun and the Levantine princes with whom he seeks to trade Overall Di Biase Dyson's monograph is an original interdisciplinary examination of an exciting corpus of ancient literary texts

America in An Arab Mirror K. Abdel-Malek, 2016-02-10 This distinguished anthology presents for the first time in English travel essays by Arabic writers who have visited America in the second half of the century The view of America which emerges from these accounts is at once fascinating and illuminating but never monolithic The writers hail from a variety of viewpoints regions and backgrounds so their descriptions of America differently engage and revise Arab pre conceptions of Americans and the West The country figures as everything from the unchanging Other the very antithesis of the Arab self to the seductive female to the Other who is both praiseworthy and reprehensible In-between Things: Teju

Adisa-Farrar, 2012-08-08 In between Things A book of poetry stories of identity and interpreting society is an anthology of poems creative non fiction pieces essays and social commentary written by the young writer and aspiring scholar activist Teju Adisa Farrar This book maps the progress of her ideas throughout her last year of high school and first few years of college Starting with pieces of her life and memories from childhood the book starts off as a creative biography As the book continues on it develops into an array of writings on the author s feelings about love social issues and histories The author shares her intimate thoughts along side old new and developing beliefs and theories about the society she lives in and the world we are all apart of While the author does not hold all these ideas as true anymore she wanted to map out and explore how growth is a creative process that does not mean we are becoming someone different rather that we are learning more about the essence we were always meant to grow into In this book she uses various types of written form to understand her own identity as it relates to her own stories and her expanding understanding of the world This anthology combines identity and interpretation in a way that helps us discover the stories in Adisa Farrar s mind The free flowing nature of the book allows each piece to be new and of it s own but add to a larger story of the world as seen through the eyes of a young adult who s passion is endless and boundless Hitting A Straight Lick with a Crooked Stick Susan E Meisenhelder, 2001-06-18

Zora Neale Hurston is a controversial figure equally praised and criticized for her representation of African Americans while some critics emphasize her ebullience and celebration of Black culture others call her fiction stereotypical and essentialist Observing the workings of the recurrent humor in her works helps explode this critical binary opposition Specifically the carnavalesque and the heteroglossia often subvert essentialist notions of Black identity Jonah's Gourd Vine's protagonist the preacher womanizer John Pearson can be seen as an African rather than an African American trickster figure i.e. as a mobile character whose liminality helps him fight essentialist definitions imposed on him by both the white establishment and his own community Janie's romantic search for self fulfillment in Their Eyes Were Watching God is undermined by the humor and the carnival which emphasize her shifting and multiply defined identity Finally the African Americanized story of Moses and the Hebrews shows the conflicts involved in their search for a unified national and cultural identity In these three novels Hurston appears as a subversive presence whose manipulation of humor underscores a complex political vision
